Questions and Answers by Christina Snell Executive Director at Lovejoy Hospice

In an effort to help you to be better informed about hospice care in our community, Lovejoy Hospice produces an informative question and answer column each month. Look for our column printed on the fourth Wednesday edition of the 'Illinois Valley News'.

Question: 'How do I know when to ask my doctor for hospice care?'

Answer: As soon after your doctor lets you know that you have a limited life expectancy and you've had time to adjust to that news is the best time. Chemo, radiation, surgery, and medication schedules as well as physical and psychological changes that he/she thinks likely to occur will be discussed with you. You will want to make your choice about hospice while you feel physically and mentally well. There is so much the hospice team can help
