charges of speeding and no operator’s permit on Holland Loop.

Saturday, Oct. 30
*Receiving four blasts with a shot-gun, a “possibly rabid” bear continued charging and banged its head on his vehicle, said an anonymous man from Tennessee Mt. Road at 1:30 a.m. The incident was referred to an Oregon State Police game officer.

*Deborah C. Murphy, 51, was cited on a charge of violation of the basic rule/VBR (driving too fast for conditions) on Caves Hwy. at 9 a.m.

*In Selma, a woman reported the theft of 20 lottery tickets and a Social Security check. She suspected a tenant who was moving out.

*Someone discovered a pickup truck on White Creek Road which had gone over an embankment the night before.

*Because the boy did not return from school the day before, a father on Warren Road requested that his son be considered a runaway juvenile person.

*An evicted former tenant was at a residence on June Drive, screaming and yelling. The complainant was advised of her options in this civil matter.

*Parents, concerned that their adult daughter was being held hostage by a man with whom she’d had “prior incidents,” phoned for assistance.

*Out with a vehicle on Caves Hwy. near Sucker Creek Road, a deputy contacted a mushroom harvester and checked for a permit at 3:23 p.m.

*After six hours as a listed runaway, a boy returned home voluntarily.

*According to an employee at Selma Texaco station, an irate and intoxicated man “went off” on the ATM machine and then unplugged it and yelled at employees.

*Because she didn’t think anyone should be there, a Selma woman reported trespassers with heavy equipment on the property behind her own. Turns out it was the new property owner.

Sunday, Oct. 31
*On Dick George Road, a home owner was informed by a neighbor that “lots of kids” including the home owner’s son, were partying at the location. Much later, when a deputy checked, the residence was unoccupied and secure.

*An employee-closing error was responsible for an alarm at Shop Smart Food Warehouse in the wee hours of the morning.

*For no known reason an alarm sounded at I.V. Building Supply sometime around 5 a.m.

*Construction workers at a new residence on W. Lister Street reported that a window appeared to have been shot with a .BB-gun.

*A “forest product check” was conducted on Caves Hwy. near Grayback Road.

*A Deer Creek Road boy, 16, was arrested on a peace officer’s mental hold and taken to Three Rivers Community Hospital (TRCH) after slashing his wrists and being uncooperative.

*An anonymous complainant requested extra patrol in a neighborhood on Old Stage Road to “scare” people suspected of drug deal involvement.

*Unhappy because she was unable to obtain a refund, a woman caused a disturbance at a Downtown CJ business.

*A driver was warned for a defective headlight and failure to carry insurance in the 1000 block of Caves Hwy. at 9:12 p.m.

*Extra Community Oriented Policing (COP) patrol was conducted a Illinois River “Forks” State Park.
