Yuletide suggestions offered by group

To help make the holidays brighter, the Josephine County Commission for Children and Families suggests the following:

*Think about the holiday activities you enjoyed as a child and those you have treasured as an adult.

*Talk with the family about what they enjoyed most during past holidays. What traditions do you want to keep? Are there some others that you have always wanted to try?

*Choose carefully. Do the activities that are most important to you and your family and enjoy them.

*Schedule time for your immediate family, or you may actually spend less time with them. Let your kids help -- decorating, cooking, wrapping gifts, making the wrapping paper for Grandma's present. The time spent will be much more important than the product.

Spending time with family, building traditions, talking about and making plans are all asset-building activities. The Search Institute identified "40 developmental assets" that help young people grow up healthy, caring and responsi-

To learn more about these assets, contact the Josephine County Commission for Children and Families, 474-5234, or drop by the office at the courthouse, basement level, Room 60.
