Will Rogers, who died in a plane crash in 1935, was probably the greatest political sage this country has ever known. Here are a few of his words of wisdom:

*Never slap a man who's chewing tobacco.

*Never kick a cow chip on a hot day.

*There are two theories to arguing with a woman. Neither works

*Never miss a good chance to shut up.

*Always drink upstream from the herd.

*If you find yourself in a hole, stop digging.

*The quickest way to double your money is to fold it and put it back in your pocket.

*There are three kinds of men: The ones that learn by reading. The few who learn by observation. The rest of them have to pee on the electric fence and find out for themselves.

*Good judgment comes from experience, and a lot of that comes from bad judgment.

*If you're riding ahead of the herd, take a look back every now and then to make sure it's still there.

*After eating an entire bull, a mountain lion felt so good he started roaring. He kept it up until a hunter came along and shot him. The moral: When you're full of bull, keep your mouth shut.
