

Tales from the Police Blotter

(Editor's Note: Factual information for 'Blotter' is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Charges can be amended or dismissed.)

Saturday, Jan. 1

*On Redwood Hwy. at Holton Creek Road at 12:40 a.m., Lee Edward McGhee, 36, was issued citations to appear on charges of driving under the influence of an intoxicant (DUI), driving while suspended (DWS), and providing false information. He also was cited on two warrants charging failure to appear on prior, similar infractions, and his vehicle was impounded.

*At 1:17 a.m. in front of the I.V. Substation, Jacob J. Look, 17, was cited to appear on a charge of DUI, and the vehicle he was driving was towed.

*Prowlers were running through her yard, said a frightened woman on Caves Hwy., and one of them was kicking her door. Although a neighbor confirmed seeing the prowlers, no one was found by a deputy.

*Left in the ditch, a "Stop" sign and pole were felled on E. Watkins Street at Caves Avenue.

*On Ridge Vista Drive someone drove through and damaged approximately 20 feet of fence, leaving behind a Cadillac grill.

*Numerous items including TVs and computers were taken after the Seventh-Day Adventist Church was ransacked, the congregation discovered at 9 a.m.

*Missing a vehicle identification tag and stereo, a gray sedan was abandoned near Art's Red Garter Saloon & Steakhouse.

*Though a small two-door vehicle was reportedly in a ditch in the 5000 block of Upper Deer Creek Road, neither firefighters nor a deputy could locate it.

*A Josephine County Public Works employee (likely driving a snow plow), retrieved two men from Happy Camp

Road near milepost five where they lost control of their vehicle around 10:20 p.m.

Sunday, Jan. 2

*On Addison Lane, a woman witnessed her neighbor's vehicle being broken into by a person in dark clothing.

*Someone intentionally drove over a mailbox on Draper Valley Road, and the resident tracked the vehicle tracks in the snow to the suspect's house. That person was warned.

*A large tree down on Rockydale Road had traffic veering off the road to get around it at 11 a.m.

*In the 200 block of W. Watkins Street, a man was upset at another driver who splashed mud on his vehicle.

*A two-tone, blue snowboard was reported stolen from the bed of a pickup truck parked at Oregon Caves Chevron.

*Numerous motorists sought assistance with vehicles disabled by snow.

*The manager at the Junction Inn said that a guest had paid for only one night's lodging and would not leave. She said he was "acting strangely" and claimed to be 1,000-years-old. He was removed from the motel and warned for trespassing.

*A man reported seeing a red, emergency flare in the vicinity of Westside Road. Deputies were unable to find anyone in the area in need of assistance.

Monday, Jan. 3

*Henry James Hopman, 42, was cited on a charge of DWS and warned for lack of a Sno Park permit at Page Mt. Snow Park at 1:15 p.m.

*Icy roads caused many minor traffic mishaps around the valley this day.

Tuesday, Jan. 4

*A stolen Toyota van was recovered on Waldo Road near O'Brien Road early in the morning.

*James Russell Hinds, 28, was cited on a charge of DWS and with a warrant charging failure to appear (FTA) on a menacing charge following a traffic stop in the 400 block of S. Redwood Hwy. at 11 a.m.

*Charles Dereift Brooks, 57, was arrested on two FTA warrants charging DUI and taken from the 400 block of Redwood Hwy. and lodged in county jail in Grants Pass.

*A highly intoxicated hitch-hiker determined to get to Grants Pass was wandering in and out of traffic in the 300 block of N. Redwood Hwy. A deputy warned him about staying off the road.

Wednesday, Jan. 5

*On Holland Loop a man returned home to find a man and woman in a gray sedan blocking his driveway. After the couple left he realized a gasoline can had been taken from his garage.

*His estranged wife attacked him with pepper spray, said a man on E. River Street, around noon.

*Brian Neal Morris, 60, was cited on a charge of speeding in a school zone near the I.V. Substation at 3:20 p.m.

*A woman said that her lost paycheck was deposited into a stranger's account.

*Teen-age boys in a green car appeared to be "casing" her property, said a woman on Happy Camp Road.

Thursday, Jan. 6

*Someone stole a credit card from a Thompson Creek Road residence and used it to withdraw cash, a woman reported.

*A stolen check was fraudulently cashed at Joe's Market, "Joe" said.

Friday, Jan. 7

*In the vicinity of Rockydale Road and Crest Drive, a woman was said to be screaming, "Neighbors protect yourselves, he has a gun and he's in the woods! Call 911!" However, no evidence of a crime was uncovered.

*The man with the gun on Crest Drive seemed to come out of hiding after a deputy left, because a complainant said that she could hear the woman say, "Don't shoot me!"

*Two people required extrication and were transported to Three Rivers Community Hospital (TRCH) after their compact vehicle struck a bob-tailing semitruck in heavy snow and went off Redwood Hwy. at milepost 41.

*Returning home on Caves Hwy. a couple found a man in their driveway who claimed to be out of gas. But he quickly left.

*A white, four-door vehicle was reported stolen from a Rockydale Road residence.

*Some miscreant ransacked the American Legion Hall on Caves Hwy.

*Several non-injury motor vehicle accidents (MVA's) occurred due to snowy weather

Saturday, Jan. 8

*Although nothing appeared to be missing, footprints in the snow led from his sheds to the neighbor's house, said a man on Takilma Road.

*Having met a fellow valleyite online, a woman said that she found his phone message disturbing.

*A house on Taurus Lane had been ransacked, the owner said.

*Gunshots were heard in the 24000 block of Redwood Hwy. at 10:05 p.m.

Sunday, Jan. 9

*Following an accident on Waldo Road, the vehicle's two intoxicated occupants walked a mile and a half to secure a ride to TRCH, where one appeared to need surgery and the other did not want any attention, said hospital staff.

*A stolen vehicle was recovered at the gravel pit on Waldo Road, the owner said.

*On Dick George Road a motorist moved six large snowballs off the road, as they were a traffic hazard, and advised that youngsters who put them there might return to replace them.

Monday, Jan. 10

*Jeffrey James Barry, 48, was cited on a charge of DUI following a single-vehicle MVA which took out a utility pole and lines, and disrupted service to homes in the Holland Loop area.

*"Crankster criminals" put large rocks behind his vehicle, which he then ran into, according to a man in the 35000 block of Redwood Hwy.

*A Subaru station wagon was reported stolen from Takilma Road.
