

$1,000 scholarships offered by Grants Pass Zonta Club

March 15 is the deadline for Young Women in Public Affairs (YWPA) scholarships available to women 16 to 20 years of age from Zonta Club of Grants Pass.

Applications for pre-college and pre-university young women are available from high school counseling offices or by phoning Ronine Broeffle at 579-2857. They also can be downloaded from zonta.org.

The YWPA goal is “to encourage more young women to participate in public and political life by recognizing a young woman’s commitment to the volunteer sector; evidence of leadership achievements; and a dedication to the advancement of the status of women.”

Scholarships of $1,000 each were awarded Sarah K. Brown, who graduated with the Illinois Valley High School Class of 1999; and Pamela Charbonneau, IVHS Class of 2003.

The Grants Pass Zonta Club awards $1,000. District recipients receive $500; and five international awards are chosen from the district recipients to receive an additional $1,000 each.

AMR donates van for JCSO crime unit

Josephine County Sheriff’s Office (JCSO) has acquired a Major Crime Unit scene investigation van from American Medical Response (AMR).

The van is a 1995 Ford converted ambulance, adapted for its current use as a crime scene vehicle.

AMR provides local, state and national medical and transport services to residents of Grants Pass, Cave Junction and all of Josephine County.

JCSO, the Grants Pass Dept. of Public Safety and the local office of the Oregon State Police work closely with AMR in Josephine County. Josephine County law enforcement depends on its partnership with AMR, said JCSO, adding that it is “thankful to AMR for this most generous donation.”

Since January 2003 the JCSO Major Crime Unit and its sister agency, the Josephine Interagency Narcotics Team, have investigated seven homicides, six criminally negligent homicides, more than 60 methamphetamine manufacturing labs and six super marijuana grows averaging more than 2,000 plants each.

At each incident, an enormous amount of evidence had to be processed. Processing of evidence is crucial to the successful prosecution of many crimes, said JCSO.

“Without proper crime scene processing, many criminals would go free and not be held accountable for their crimes,” said JCSO. Having a well-equipped vehicle to process crime scenes is essential to a proper criminal investigation.

Chris Watson Restoration, of Grants Pass, donated services and materials, painting the van the traditional police colors of black and white.
