McClure-Alexeyeva wed

Dallin McClure, of Cave Junction, married Liudmilla "Milla" Alexeyeva, of Khabarovsk, Russia, on July 6, 2004 in South Korea.

For their ceremony, the couple wore traditional Korean wedding garb.

The new Mrs. McClure is the daughter of Vitaly and Galina Alexeyev, of Khabarovsk, on the border of Russia and China. The town is slightly north of the Korean peninsula.

U.S. Army Pfc. McClure attended Illinois Valley High School and earned his GED in 2002, when he joined the Army.

Dealing in Patriot missiles as his military occupational specialty, McClure was stationed at Osan Air Base with Air Defense Artillery.

While off-duty in Osan, he met his fiancée, who was working in a civilian capacity. They met in April 2004 on a Russian holiday known as "Men's Day." They dated for three months, and were married in Sontang.

The couple were in Cave Junction recently for a visit; then went to Fort Bliss in El Paso, Texas. McClure could be stationed there for 14 months, or he could be assigned to Iraq. If the latter, his wife will stay with his parents in Cave Junction until he completes his military hitch, after which he plans to enroll in a college.

Church News

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

On the Third Sunday of Lent, we will read from John about the encounter between Jesus and a Samaritan woman at Jacob's well, during which she declared that the man who told her everything she had done in her life was a prophet.

She told others the same, and after Jesus was with the Samaritans two days, many began to believe in him because of his word.

Good Shepherd Lutheran

Is the season of Lent supposed to be a "feel good" time, or a time when we look at the way we are living?

Because it is the time leading to the crucifixion of Jesus, to wash away our sins, perhaps remembering this "true meaning" will help guide us.
