

Obituary

Dixie Lee Valdez

A memorial service was held Sunday, Feb. 27 at Illinois Valley Senior Center in Cave Junction for Selma resident Dixie Lee Valdez, 70, who died at home Feb. 23, 2005.

The celebrant for the celebration of her life was Linda Engles.

Mrs. Valdez was born Oct. 1, 1934 in Fort Collins, Colo. She moved to Illinois Valley in 1972 from San Jose, Calif.

She worked as a receptionist at Dr. Joe's Pet Hospital, and was known for "rescuing any and all animals lucky enough to walk up the driveway to her house."

She loved to crochet, and had won a first place at the Josephine County Fair.

Mrs. Valdez is survived by her husband, Charlie Valdez, of Selma; two daughters, Yvonne, and Lavonne; a sister; five grandchildren; and a great-grandson.

Illinois Valley Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Multivehicle crash near GP results in death of CJ mom

A young Cave Junction mother of three, who was seven months pregnant, died, as did the child she was carrying, as a result of a multivehicle crash Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 22.

The accident occurred in the Redwood Hwy. safety corridor at Arbor Ridge Drive, a short distance south of Dawn Drive, not far from the west entrance to Rogue Community College in rural Grants Pass.

Dead are Holly Ann Dangerfield, 22, and her unborn child, said Oregon

State Police. In addition four other persons were reported injured, including the driver of the car in which Dangerfield was riding.

Reported injured were Jacqueline Lea Landers, 46, of Cave Junction, driver of the car in which Dangerfield was riding; Cave Junction motorist Catherine Marshall, 53; Grants Pass driver Janet Sondrol, 58, and her passenger, Gary Tinsdale, 53, also of Grants Pass.

OSP gave the following account:

Grants Pass resident Elizabeth Holt, 71, was stopped on the Redwood Hwy. left lane for southbound traffic, waiting to make a left turn onto Arbor Ridge.

Two vehicles swerved right to avoid striking Holt's van. A semitruck, not towing a trailer, was behind those vehicles and swerved left to avoid striking the van, and the semitruck struck the left-rear corner, continued into oncoming traffic and hit a Chevrolet Suburban driven by Marshall.

Church News

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

On the Fourth Sunday of Lent, we will focus on "light." Our reading from Ephesians states, "Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth."

Next we will read from John 8: "I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life."

Seventh-day Adventist

For "something different and fun, Guest Day" will be held at the church at 265 Old State Road Saturday, March 5.

Beginning at 9:30 a.m. featured speaker Henry Martin will share his "interesting history." For years he owned the Mercedes Benz dealership in Grants Pass, and became known as "Auto Martin."

At 9:30 he will present, "Ancient Diet That Promotes Health," and during the 11 a.m. worship service, he will speak on, "The Day My Life Crashed."

A "delicious lunch" will be served guests at noon, and at 2 p.m., the Martins will present, "Guest Relations."

During the recent Sweet-heart Banquet, there was a record crowd, with Harold and Edna Premdas winning the first prize in the "Oldie Wed" game. Lois Taylor won the grand prize in "Guess Who" competition.

The Decorating Committee, led by Kim Bowlby, was recognized for "a fantastic job of transforming the Fellowship Hall into a lovely banquet hall."

Illinois Valley Baptist Church

An after-school fun center for children is offered Thursdays, beginning March 3 in the American Legion Hall at 2110 Caves Hwy.

The center will be open from 3 to 5:30 p.m. and "kids of all ages" can attend. Parents are welcome to participate and have fun with their children and provide ideas on how to make it better.

Based on community support by attendance, the center may open for additional days in the future, and there could be a special night for teen-agers.

Programs will include games appropriate for each age group, and mystery field trips and movie days. Fun mystery trips will be won by attendance points.

"Ride the school bus after school and come and have fun," said the church. For more information phone Wanda and LeRoy Hoffman at 592-3545

Sundays at 6 p.m. a continuing informal "Study of Angels" is held by the church in the Legion Hall.

The church will hold a bake sale outside the Cave Junction Post Office Saturday, March 12. Proceeds will be added to the new church building fund.

Red Rock Cowboy Church

The community can join in Sunday, March 6 at the Selma Community & Education Center for a free barbecue at 5 p.m., followed by a church service at 6 p.m. For more information phone (541) 951-3712.
