Wrestlers raising funds for Down Under invitational

Two of Illinois Valley's standout wrestlers have been invited to the eighth annual Down Under International Games in Australia in July.

Wescott Lynch and Sam Green -- seniors at I.V. High School, who were on the Cougar team that won this year's Skyline Conference championship -- now have to earn the money to make the trip. They'll be helped by their parents, but more assistance is needed.

A joint account for the two, who also did well at state competition, has been established at Home Valley Bank. Donations should be made out to either Green or Lynch and marked "Wrestling."

The boys need $300 each initially to reserve their spots, then will need approximately another $3,000 to cover expenses.

Besides seeking donations, they also are planning several fund-raising work projects.

I.V. Lions 'egging on kids'

Illinois Valley Lions Club is preparing for the largest Easter Egg Hunt it has ever conducted.

The event will be held Easter Sunday, March 27 at Jubilee Park.

There will be 3,000 eggs, cash awards, and prize certificates in eggs, said I.V. Lions. In addition, there will be "lots of toys and candy besides Easter eggs."

There will be three ages groups so that "all will get a chance."

From 11 a.m. until the hunt begins at 1 p.m., free rides will be available on the I.V. Lions train. Plus, there will be at least one K-9 team from Josephine County Sheriff's Office, Smokey Bear, and the club's Lion and Easter Bunny characters. Rigs from I.V. Fire District also will be at the park.

"Parents should bring their cameras," said I.V. Lions Club.

community credit union, moved into a newly remodeled office Thursday, March 3 in the same building the Illinois Valley branch has occupied since 1973 in Downtown Cave Junction. Employees are (from left) branch manager Vicki Gill, Laree Bethke, Pamela Compton and Lisa Sherier. The remodeling was by Virgil Jines Construction, of CJ. The part of the building that housed the credit union will be remodeled by Jines to include an office for Gill, a break room; and a rental space, which has already been taken. Still to come in the new branch is a technical center with a computer for member use. A drive-up window is part of the new branch, as well as a drive-up ATM. Doug Kendall, of CJ, did the design work for the construction remodeling. The interior design is by Peggy Mull, SOFCU executive vice president. The branch is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mondays and Fridays; 10-5 Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. The drive-up is open from 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Mondays and Fridays; and 8:30-5:30 other weekdays.
