“So many people I know are really homeless and destitute and have no car, so it’s a real blessing that we have the Feed-the-Hungry Program,” said Tweedy, who took over as coordinator in 2002.

“We have good helpers, and sometimes we get help from other people, but we still spend half a day in the kitchen between cooking and clean-up.”

Butler and Edmiston agreed with Tweedy that although they may spend hours upon hours in the kitchen, it’s time well spent.

“Volunteering my time for this is so important,” said Butler. “My husband calls my car the ‘kitchen-mobile’ because it’s always filled with boxes for donations, and we fill it up with food for the kitchen every time we go to Costco.

“It’s something I never could do when I was working. I’ve always wanted to be involved in the community and this has given me the chance,” Butler said.

Besides cash and food donations, healthy appetites always are welcome at all three locations, coordinators stressed.

For more information on the food kitchens, or to donate, phone Butler at 597-4383, Edmiston at 597-4108 or Tweedy at 592-6866.

Cougar Notables

A number of students were honored recently at Illinois Valley High School for varied academic and extracurricular achievements.

Those honored were chosen for recognition either by IVHS Principal JoAnn Bethany, Kerby Belt Masonic Lodge AF&AM, or Josephine County Board of Commissioners. Honorees:

Trevor Cook, Lydia Beeman, Nick Greener, Erika Riley, Jessea Mucha, Leah Person, Samantha Heller, Bill Haskins.

Also, BreAnna Allan, Cody Parsons, Kelsey Arnett, Patrick DeCelles, Jenny Bebb and Courtney Christianson, Jesse Fullerton, Tahisha Buck.

Also, Kaylah Arnett, Max Hoffman, Becky Bodeving, Emily Dudley, and Daniel Clausnitzer.

COUGAR SOFTBALLERS TAKE TWO - Illinois Valley High School varsity softball players won both sides of a double-header in Cave Junction Saturday, April 2, beating Rogue River 4-0, 11-3. (Top) I.V.'s Ricci Coultas took to the air to beat the toss at home plate and score for I.V. (Bottom) Erika Riley rounded third with coach Justine Johnson giving her the 'go' sign. I.V.'s Serena Barry was the winning pitcher in both games, striking out two and walking one in the first game, and pitching relief in the second to nail down the victory. Cougar stand-outs included Coultas, Riley, Barry, Jessica Ragsdale and Shannon Look. It was the Skyline Conference season opener, and the Cougars, who finished second to Rogue River last year, ensured they are a team to be watched. In Rogue River on Saturday, the I.V. boys varsity baseball team lost 15-0, 23-1.

College Achievers

Southern Oregon University at Ashland announced that Amy Hardy, of Cave Junction, achieved a 4.0 grade-point average for winter quarter, making her eligible for the President’s Honor List.

In addition, Monica Rivera and Bethany Robinson, both of Cave Junction, earned minimum grade-point averages of 3.50 for inclusion on the Dean’s Honor List.

All three students are taking at least 12 graded units.

Amazing Discoveries Prophecy Lectures Presents Steve Cook

Steve Cook presents the Amazing Discoveries in Prophecy Seminar in a dynamic crystal clear way that will thrill you! Especially designed for busy people, you are invited to "come as you are." You will gain answers to some of life's most important questions: How can I have real and lasting peace of mind? Where did I come from and why do I exist? If God is so powerful, why does evil exist? What is God's plan for my life? What does the future hold for me and my family?

Presented in a comfortable atmosphere as a community service to all people (Christians and non-Christians), you will enjoy studying your free Bible and will learn more in a few nights than you may have your entire life.

The only textbook you'll use at the seminar is your Bible. Each participant will be given a Bible to use each night and keep just for attending the seminar absolutely FREE! You will also be given study material each night to aid you in your quest to understand the amazing prophecies of Daniel and Revelation concerning your future. Don't miss a night!
