Freeman and Scandel Williams. Each car made by the Cubs was weighed by the official weighmaster, Dan Fiske, with help from numerous assistants. Also helping were Cathy Pullen and Elaine Rigby, pack leaders. The finish line judges were Brother and Sister Beck, who are serving as missionaries for the LDS Church, and who have purchased a residence in Cave Junction.

Alameda will wed Ingersoll

The engagement and forthcoming wedding of Shawna Alameda to Allen Ingersoll is announced by her parents, Carlos and Barbra Alameda, of Cave Junction.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Robert Ingersoll, of Glendale, Ore., and Linda Hurt, of Cave Junction. Ingersoll is employed as a faller by Huffman and Wright, of Canyonville, Ore.

Shawna is a 2004 graduate of Illinois Valley High School.

After the wedding on May 1 at Immanuel United Methodist Church in Cave Junction, the couple will make their home in Glendale.
