First-class postage rise proposed

First-class postage could rise to 39-cents early in 2006 if a U.S. Postal Service (USPS) request is approved by the Postal Rate Commission.

USPS is seeking a 5.4 percent across-the-board rise for all postage rates. The increase is sought because of Congress requiring that USPS establish a $3.1 billion escrow fund.

If that requirement is removed by Congress, the rate increase would be withdrawn. The last postal rate increase was in 2002.
