Wyden lists drought aid on Website

Following a promise at his March 29 Drought Preparedness Forum, U.S. Sen. Ron Wyden (D-Ore.) has posted a list of drought resources on his Website.

The list includes resources for various water users including agricultural and recreational users, fishermen, small businesses, those affected by increased energy costs, and others who might suffer the consequences of a dry spring and summer in Oregon.

‘When drought impacts our state, people shouldn’t have to spend weeks trying to figure out who to call,’ said Wyden.

He convened the forum in Salem to bring together water users from across the state with government agencies to discuss preparations for the severe water shortage predicted for Oregon this summer. Representatives from a broad array of commercial and noncommercial interests attended.

They discussed the anticipated effects on municipal water users, agriculture and other water-dependent businesses, energy costs, fish and wildlife, wildfire, and recreation. Federal and state agency representatives also attended and spoke about their efforts to prepare for a drought.

The list of drought resources is available at wyden.senate.gov/.

Ed licenses for ex-prostitutes?

The Senate Education and Workforce Committee unanimously has approved SB 703, a bill that allows individuals who have been convicted of prostitution to be licensed by the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC), or be employed by districts in nonlicensed jobs

The bill now moves to the Senate for consideration, according to Oregon School Boards Association.

Currently, anyone convicted of prostitution is prohibited from either holding a license from TSPC, or being employed by a school district in a classified (nonteaching) position.

The sponsor of the bill, Sen. Margaret Carter (D-Portland), told the committee the current prohibition does not make sense for many individuals who may have been convicted at a young age and have turned around their lives.

CHILI WINNERS- Kathy Webb (right) received the Judges' Prize, while Suzanne Gagin got the nod as People's Choice Winner in the 9th annual Carlos Restaurante Chili Cook-Off Saturday, April 16. The two also received honorable mentions. Webb received $130, and Gagin got $50 and dinner for two. Judges were Tub Madden, Kathaleen Ponder, Pat Sculley, Michael Yanase and Linda Oncay. There were eight entrants.

Singin', pickin' and a-grinnin' on tap for Siskiyou Bluegrass Fest July 30

By PAM COOPER
Coordinator,
Siskiyou Bluegrass Festival

A great line-up of bands already is scheduled for the second annual Siskyou Bluegrass Festival at Lake Selmac.

The first such event, also a fund-raiser for Illinois Valley Chamber of Commerce in the same location, was a huge success, as we sold out. The bands were outstanding, and everyone had a great time.

Thanks to our returning major corporate sponsors, the all-day/into-the-night Siskiyou Bluegrass Festival will return this year on July 30. Sponsors are Home Valley Bank, Wild River Brewing & Pizza Co., Evergreen Federal Bank, and radio station KRRM (94.7).

Another terrific line-up of bands is already scheduled: "Siskiyou Summi", from Ashland; "Gold River," an off-shoot of "Finger Pickin' Good" from Grants Pass; and Illinois Valley's own "Jefferson."

Also, “HotQua String Band” from Roseburg; the young, talented “Emmons Sisters” from Grants Pass; “Swing State” from Williams playing “bluegrass swing;” “Moon Mountain Ramblers,” Bend’s premier bluegrass band; “The Kuzins” from Grants Pass; and Nancy Spencer and her musical saw.

In addition, we'll have the delightful "Goldman Family" from Eagle Point. The group is comprised of 4- to 11-year-old siblings pickin' and a'singin'.

Posters will be placed around the valley during the coming months, and there will be ads in newspapers including "Illinois Valley News."

Additional sponsorships and volunteers still are needed. The festival has the potential to become an extremely successful annual event, and a boon for Illinois Valley. But in these first years, it needs the help of the valley community to make it so.

To become a sponsor or a volunteer, contact Pam Cooper at (541) 610-4055, or nowcoop@msn.com. Or contact I.V. Chamber of Commerce at 592-3326 Tuesdays through Fridays between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m.
