*Was told by Rich that he would appreciate his annual review as soon as possible, as he has completed his one-year probation as new chief.

*Adopted a resolution to allow the district to participate in the Special Districts Workers Compensation Self-Insured Group.

*Agreed that a committee would meet with representatives of the valley's real estate offices to determine which will represent the district in selling the current site of the Selma Fire Station.

*Was advised by Rich that construction on three new stations in Cave Junction, O'Brien and Selma is progressing well.

*Revised the position title of Beth Beards from administrative assistant to administrative chief to comply with Special Districts terminology. Her salary will remain the same.

*Was advised that free CDs containing the recently approved I.V. Fire Plan are available at headquarters.

Top DUII cite goes to Burke

Deputy Michael Burke of Josephine County Sheriff's Office has been presented the 2004 Officer of the Year Award for Driving-Under-the-Influence-of-Intoxicants Enforcement.

During 2004, Burke arrested 107 persons for DUII. The award is from the Oregon DUII Task Force.

"This award exemplifies Deputy Burke's dedication and commitment in detecting and removing those who drive under the influence, risking life and injury to others," said Undersheriff Brian Anderson.
