

C-J Child Care Center readies for its opening

Preschool classes, and child-care by the month or hour are offered by a new business, C-J Child Care Center, in the location of the former Discovery Acres.

Owned by Jessica Clark with her mother Charmaine Hamlin as head teacher, the center at 28409 Redwood Hwy., approximately 2 miles south of Downtown CJ.

The business is scheduled to open Monday, Aug. 15. At the suggestion of former owner Carol Hanson, who operated Discovery Acres for 14 years, the two women used the first letter of their first names for their business, which also is a common nickname for Cave Junction.

Hamlin has been involved in professional child-care since 1968, said Clark. Until the business opens, those interested in openings can phone 592-2444 after 5 p.m. daily. After the center opens, the phone number will be 592-2273 (CARE).

Besides Hamlin, said Clark, there will be four or five qualified aides. And in answer to many questions to Clark, who is store director at Shop Smart Food Warehouse: "No, I am not leaving my Shop Smart job."

C-J Child Care Center will be open Mondays through Fridays from 5:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Pre-school classes will run on the same days from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Initially, the women plan to accommodate children 1 to 12 years old, although openings for the younger ages are limited.

Besides a fee for monthly service, the center also offers hourly rates, as for children who can be left by their school bus after classes.

"We're trying to offer some meals and snacks," said Clark, "but at least in the beginning, until we connect with the state food program, children should be sent with breakfast and lunch."

Eventually, she said, she wants to obtain an associate-in-arts degree in early childhood development. "I want to broaden my horizons," she said.

"I enjoy my job at Shop Smart, but there's a strong need for child-care, and we want to fill that need."

Jones new IVFD prez

Director Larrick Jones was elected president of the Illinois Valley Fire District (IVFD) governing board during its meeting Thursday night, July 14 at administrative headquarters.

Incoming Director Dusty Bouchard was elected board secretary, and Director Joe Malcolm, who has been board president, was chosen vice president.

Chief Harry Rich told the board that Saturday, Aug. 6 is the tentative date for dedication of Station 1 in Cave Junction. He added that dedication of Station 3 in O'Brien is planned for Aug. 13.

The three new stations were erected by Batzer Construction, of Medford, under a $2.1 million bond approved by IVFD voters in 2002 when Kyle Kirchner was chief.

New buildings were needed, IVFD has noted because of the age, deterioration and lack of proper facilities at each of the three existing structures.
