Junior Golfers aim for cup in youth tourney

By BOB MUSWIECK
The Junior Golf Program at Laurel Pines Golf Course in Cave Junction hit a record high this year, with 95 youngsters signed up for instructions.

Our six-week program went by rapidly. On the driving range the youths received instruction from golf pro Michael Day and Steve Lyons, plus parents and grandparents. Charlie Stoop taught putting and had a putting contest.

On the fifth week we had our tournament for three age groups. Golf balls were handed out for prizes. All junior golfers received trophies.

Mason Thornhill was medalist for ages 5 to 7, with a score of 18 for 3 holes. Freddy Hults was medalist for ages 8 to 10, with a score of 22 for 5 holes.

Cody Albertson was medalist for ages 11 to 15 as was Mark Mclean with a score of 54 for 9 holes. For our awards ceremony, Shop Smart Food Warehouse supplied groceries and paper goods, and Taylor's Sausage supplied hamburger patties.

Al Krugh was our chef, and Jerri Zimmerman was our kitchen help.
