* * *

*Carrying a notebook and a pack of cigarettes, a young woman was wandering somewhat disorientedly near Rough & Ready Lumber Co. at 3:30 a.m., the watchman said.

*An employee at Oregon Caves National Monument found a galvanized pipe, taped at both ends, with a wick sticking out of it in some water near the entrance to the cave. An OSP bomb technician responded.

*Called to Jubilee Park on a report of a dog fight in progress, an animal control officer took three dogs into custody. None of the five people contacted in connection with allowing the animals to fight were charged, although one, Jeremy Nicholas Hurst, 22, was cited on a warrant charging failure to appear (FTA) on charges of driving under the influence of an intoxicant (DUII) and second-degree criminal mischief.

*Pushing buttons and babbling, a "very happy baby" playing with a phone dialed 911, but all was OK at a McMullen Creek Road home.

*Sometime after 4 p.m. an alarm was noted at I.V. Building Supply. Upon investigation, water was found "everywhere," and firefighters responded.

*His assailant from an earlier incident was harassing his wife at her place of work, a man said at 7:30 p.m.

*Broken and leaning against another tree, a 100-foot-tall trunk was threatening to block traffic in the 3000 block of Lakeshore Drive around 9 p.m.

*A deputy made a 10 p.m. swing through Ol' Joe's River Valley Mobile Park under Community Oriented Policing (COP).

*Fed up with her children who were verbally fighting, a mother on Lamont Way got in her car and drove off, her concerned daughter said. She returned about an hour later.

Tuesday, Aug. 2

*Of four young adults contacted around midnight near Lorna Byrne Middle School, Anthony David Pope, 19, was arrested on charges of failure to appear (FTA) on a charge of third-degree theft.

*Although an alarm indicated breaking glass at Selma Select Market just after 1 a.m., no problem was uncovered.

*An ATM at Sterling Savings Bank sustained damage to the monitor due to some criminal mischief just after 1 a.m.

*Two people on bicycles in Downtown Cave Junction were warned for lack of headlights at 3:45 a.m.

*Tina Therese Skiba, 43, was cited on a charge of speeding -- 86 mph in a 55 zone -- on Redwood Hwy. near Kerby at 2:20 p.m.

*Yelling and in possession of a driver's license which didn't belong to him, Arthur Dustin DiFuria, 29, was arrested in Kerby on a charge of parole violation/ possession of a controlled substance (PCS) methamphetamine.

*Russell Richard Blummett, 33, was arrested on charges of probation violation and third-degree theft after a shoplifting incident at CJ Select Market at 7:30 p.m.

*Fellow campers did not return after driving off the night before to go "exploring," a visitor to Lake Selmac reported. They soon turned up.

*A neighbor of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on S. Junction Avenue noted that several individuals had been hanging out on the church lawn all day, drinking, allowing their dogs to run loose and being obnoxious. The neighbor requested a deputy have them move on.

Wednesday, Aug. 3

*Extra patrol occurred on Ollis Road just after midnight.

*There was a COP swing through Jubilee Park shortly before 2 a.m.

*On S. Kerby Avenue, a mother reported that her daughter, 12, was not minding.

*Several persons loitering in Jubilee Park vanished after a patrol car arrived to investigate a complaint of people drinking near the playground.

*When eventually passed by a tailgating pickup truck on Redwood Hwy., a caller said the driver threw something out which struck her windshield.

*At Store Gulch, a woman's ex-boyfriend showed up with his new woman, who threatened to beat the complainant in front of her four children.

*Arrested at Deer Creek Ranch on a federal warrant charging tax evasion, Roderick Alyn Prescott, 52, was later turned over to federal agents in Rogue River.

*A man who had been causing problems with a tenant in the 27000 block of Redwood Hwy. was "trespassed" from the location.

*Rock-throwing vandals caused nearly $1,000 damage to windows at Lorna Byrne Middle School, the head custodian reported.

*Steven Glasser, 50, was cited to appear on a warrant charging FTA on an original charge of DUII. The other four men contacted at the same time in Jubilee Park were warned about public intoxication.

*Fireworks, "the kind that explode in the air," were reported on Norman Road. The Oregon Dept. of Forestry duty officer was informed.

*K-9 officer and partner were on foot in the vicinity of Schumacher and Hussey streets looking for someone wanted under a warrant.

Thursday, Aug. 4

*Extra COP patrols covered numerous locations in and around Cave Junction in the wee morning hours.

*At 2:21 a.m. a bicyclist was warned for lack of required lighting when contacted on Hanby Lane at Mountain Valley Way.

*Earl D. Gordon, 43, was arrested and lodged in Josephine County Jail on a charge of menacing after breaking a window and threatening a woman in the 28000 block of Redwood Hwy. at 9:35 a.m.

*Somebody smashed a gauge on a gas line at a construction site.

*Donald Wayne Dietert Jr., 36, was cited on charges of failure to drive right, driving while suspended (DWS), lack of insurance and possession of less than an ounce of marijuana on Illinois River Road.

*Tammy Wilson, 18; Leslie Ann Dunaway, 50; Chad D. Mete, 17; James William Wall, 55; Mandy Selene Elgin, 25; and Barbara Jeanne Weeks, 43, were each cited in separate incidents on charges of failure to drive right on Illinois River Road between 2 and 5 p.m.

*Daniel Paul Cartwright, 33, was arrested on a charge of probation violation at the I.V. Substation and lodged in Josephine County Jail.

*Amanda Lynn Nelson, 24, was cited on charges of failure to drive right and driving uninsured at 5:30 p.m. on Illinois River Road.

*A caller thought it suspicious that a fully clothed man would be laying face down near the green bridge on Finch Road. When contacted, the reclining 15-year-old stated he was there "because it feels good."

*On a Downtown CJ parking lot a man reported that one of his tires had been slashed, and that a witness could identify the suspect.

Friday, Aug. 5

*On Kerby Avenue a woman said that while he slept her son had been taken from his tent by two other juveniles, who then threw him in the neighbor's swimming pool. Though unfounded as a crime, she wanted the kids warned about their behavior.

*Sarah M. Anderson, 21; Ryan W. Tobin, 26; Jason E. Wolcott, 30; Kerrie S. South, 35; Scoot D. Simpson, 42; Charles W. Scott III, 37; Ray Jonn Young, 49; and Brittany Saykally, 18; each were cited on a charge of failure to drive right on Illinois River Road between 1:15 and 6:11 p.m.

*"I'm going to kill!" a man in his 30s was reported to have yelled to no one in particular before ducking into some woods in the 27000 block of Redwood Hwy. at 3:35 p.m.

*An employee at Carlos' Restaurante said that three of their cars had been "keyed."

*Neighbors having a dispute over fast, dust-raising driving on Holland Loop were behaving badly and were "trespassed" from each other's properties.

*Timothy Roy Wilcox, 25, was arrested on E. River Street, charged with first-degree criminal trespass, restraining order violation, and interfering with a 911 call.

*Very loud fireworks were reported on Laurel Road at 11 p.m.

Saturday, Aug. 6

*Four teen-agers were contacted at Jubilee Park at quarter after 1 a.m. Two unattended backpacks were admitted as found property.

*Michael Gene McConnell, 41, was cited on charges of careless driving, no proof of insurance and failure to carry registration in the 19000 block of Redwood Hwy.

*Tammy L. Jorgensen, 39, was cited on a charge of speeding in the 17000 block of Redwood Hwy.

*On S. Caves Avenue at Lister Street a "Stop" sign was missing, a thoughtful caller noted at 2:17 p.m.

*Once again, a slew of people, unable or unwilling drive on the right side of the road, were cited on Illinois River Road this afternoon.

*Beaten bloody, and written all over with black marker, a man was taken by American Medical Response from Downtown CJ to Three Rivers Community Hospital.

*Debra Jane Meredith, 47, was cited to appear on a charge of DUII after encountering vehicle trouble on Rockydale Road.

*Near the green bridge in Takilma, a woman believed she overheard a man offering his daughters to another man for sex.

*"Lots of shooting" on Buck Canyon Drive was reported at 9 p.m.

*On Daisy Lane, there was a possible prowler at 10 p.m.

Sunday, Aug. 7

*An unstable (on her feet) woman nearly fell into traffic on Caves Hwy. at 5 a.m.

*Naked, distraught and carrying a blanket, a woman was walking on Caves Hwy. Near Dogwood Lane at 6:14 a.m.

*Asked to leave an E. River Street residence where he was not welcome, a man began arguing. But he eventually left.

*A caller said that some adults had beaten young people at Store Gulch at 6:30 p.m.

*In an argument with her soon-to-be ex-husband, a woman on Kerby Mainline said he threw a cell phone toward her, shattering it, and smacked a trailer near where she was sitting, and said, "You're next." She was advised of her options.

*In the 500 block of Caves Hwy. a man was sitting on a resident's fence, refusing to leave.

*Ten bales of hay had been dropped on Redwood Hwy. between Deer Creek Road and Hogue Drive, OSP was advised at 8 p.m.

*Apparently intoxicated, a man was seen masturbating in the vicinity of children near Lake Selmac. A deputy was unable to locate the man.

Monday, Aug. 8

*Following word of a disturbance including a number of men with guns and switchblade knives, some folks were contacted on W. River Street just after midnight. A quantity of a controlled substance was found, but no one seemed to know who it belonged to, so it was destroyed.

*In violation of a restraining order, a man kept returning to a residence on Schumacher Street to yell at a woman.

*On Deer creek Road a woman reported a vacuum cleaner missing from her bedroom.

*A woman complained that the driver of a primer-gray pickup truck ran a "Stop" sign while her son was in the crosswalk at W. Lister Street at S. Redwood Hwy. at 4 p.m.

*Timothy Roy Wilcox, 23, was arrested on charges of criminal trespassing and a restraining order violation after locking himself in a garage at a residence on E. River Street from which he'd been evicted the week before. He was lodged in county jail.

*Every morning, transients loiter, drink and panhandle near his business, a restaurant owner in Downtown CJ complained.

Tuesday, Aug. 9

*A boy, 15, was warned regarding curfew and riding his bicycle without required lighting at 1 a.m. on S. Junction Avenue at Lister Street.

*Litter and debris accumulating on a gravel bar off Burch Drive indicated squatters living there, a caller said. The sheriff's office determined the area was in the Redwood Hwy. right-of-way and therefore referred the issue to OSP and ODOT to handle.

*Luma Badawi, 45, was cited on charges of speeding, careless driving, and failure to carry proof of insurance on Sauer's Flat at 5:47 p.m.

*The driver of a smashed-in Isuzu skidded sideways into a driveway in Kerby, nearly striking a fence and dog, and then yelled obscenities at the resident and took off.

*William Sampley, 57, was cited on a DWS charge, and his vehicle impounded at 10:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Aug. 10

*A CJ man said that his ex-girlfriend doused him with gasoline and attempted to run over him.

*Michael Adam Massey, 25, was arrested on a charge of providing false information to police and lodged on a detaining order when contacted in Jubilee Park after a report of a fight involving several people.

*Bernard Richard Stevenson, 66, was cited on a charge of speeding -- 83 mph in a 55 zone -- at milepost 20 of Redwood Hwy. at 2:17 p.m.

Wisdom begins at the end.
