

WITH HELMETS HIGH, the Illinois Valley High School varsity football team celebrated its come-from-behind homecoming victory Friday, Oct. 21. Spirit Week events included a bonfire. (Top two photos by IVHS yearbook staff). The annual Homecoming Parade Friday included floats, the Cougar band led by Kevin Soon, and many spectators, including a girl who offered her cheers to the marchers as they went through Cave Junction. Students at Evergreen & Lorna Byrne schools, as well as some Cougars, painted their faces in the school colors to show their support. (Photos by 'Illinois Valley News')

ERIKA RILEY AND GARRETT CROWL (top right), seniors at Illinois Valley High School, were crowned Homecoming 2005 king & queen Friday night, Oct. 21. The IVHS cheerleaders (at right) led the annual Homecoming Parade through Downtown Cave Junction Friday, touring past Evergreen Elementary and Lorna Byrne Middle schools, as those student bodies turned out for the procession. Come to '05 Revive!

God promises in James 4:8 that if we draw near to Him, He'll draw near to us. So we'd like to invite you to a special week in November when churches from all over the world will unite in prayer and praise to experience genuine, heartfelt revival. Nationally known Pastor, Doug Batchelor will deliver an inspiring series of messages designed to bring renewal to our community.

Don't miss this opportunity to "Draw Closer to Jesus!"
