

A GREETERS COMMITTEE gathering, hosted by Mary Reynolds of Cave Junction-based Jefferson State Financial Group, was held Wednesday morning April 26. The Greeters, of the Josephine County-Grants Pass Chamber of Commerce, showed up some 30 strong. The high-energy meeting included breakfast, 30-second ‘commercials’ about the businesses of those attending, and a drawing for prizes. Networking and mutual assistance are among goals. Two community gatherings to observe and celebrate the National Day of Prayer will be held Thursday, May 4 at noon and 5 p.m. at Valley Evangelical Free Church located at Laurel and N. Old Stage roads in Cave Junction.

VOTE THIS WEEK!

“If I were to vote on administrative qualities alone it would be Gil Gilbertson....

With glowing letters of recommendation from a US Ambassador and an Army General who both praise his accomplishments and acknowledge his leadership abilities, it’s about time we got such an outstanding candidate as Gil Gilbertson.”

-Ron Lee, U.S. Observer
