

In 1889, the first coin-operated telephone, patented by Hartford, Conn. inventor William Gray, was installed in the Hartford Bank. Local calls using a coin-operated phone in the United States cost only 5-cents everywhere until 1951.

Waterloo, N.Y. has been sanctioned by the government as being the birthplace of Memorial Day. Originally called Decoration Day, it was changed to Memorial Day in 1882.

Memorial Day was first observed on May 30, 1868.

The Commission's Memorial Day anthem, "On This Day," was composed by Charles Strouse, award-winning composer of "Annie" and "Bye, Bye Birdie."
