St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church
Sunday, May 10, as we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity, readings will focus on Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in one God.

We will ponder Matthew’s quote of Jesus: “All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And, behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

Seventh-day Adventist Church, Cave Junction
By Patty Hyland

Bouquets of roses and lovely cards of appreciation were given the teachers at Madrone Adventist School Saturday morning, June 3.

The teachers have gone the second mile in unselfishly giving of their time and talent to make this a special year for students. Many have excelled and received special awards for scholarship.

The church was blessed by the ministry of Pastor Chuck Burkeen, Personal Ministries director of the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. He conducted a two-day seminar on Spiritual Gifts. Each participant was given materials to study and review.

The Power Point Presentation gave everyone an opportunity to identify their God-Given talents and how they could effectively be used to God’s glory.

After a special vegetarian buffet, the final Part 3 of the Spiritual Gifts Seminar was held. Tuesday, June 13 and 20 at 7 p.m. the New Life Seminar will continue. Everyone will receive an instruction manual.

Thursday several women will leave for the Christian Women’s Retreat at Milo Adventist Academy at Days Creek. “Bridge to Relationships” is the theme, with Ginnie Allen, of Vancouver, Wash., as primary speaker.

DAVID ‘MR. V’ VALENZUELA

I.V. graduate David Valenzuela will be Evergreen’s principal

David “Mr. V” Valenzuela, a 1991 graduate of Illinois Valley High School, will serve as new principal of Evergreen Elementary School in Cave Junction come September.

He’ll replace Nancy Brown, principal for the past two years. She’ll retire as of June 28, and plans to spend a lot more time with her family than she’s been able to during her career.

Valenzuela received his bachelor’s degree in education/health & physical education in ‘97 from Western Oregon University at Monmouth. Since then he’s been a teacher, including two years at IVHS, and taught alternative education for four years at Fleming Middle School.

Valenzuela also has held two assistant principalships, most recently at Lincoln Savage Middle School in Grants Pass.

His wife, Kirsten, is a history teacher at Hidden Valley High School. She’ll transfer to IVHS. Their daughter, Katelynne, will be in first grade at Evergreen.

The family plans to relocate from Grants Pass to Illinois Valley, Valenzuela said.
