Oregon gets overall D+ on tobacco curb

For the fifth consecutive year, Oregon received a failing grade in tobacco prevention funding, according to the annual American Lung Association State of Tobacco Control report.

The state had an overall grade of D+.

The report graded the 50 states, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico in four categories: smoke-free air, tobacco taxes, funding for tobacco prevention and restrictions on youth access to tobacco products.

Oregon received the following grades: Tobacco Prevention and Control Spending, F; Smoke-free Air, C; Cigarette Taxes, C; and Youth Access to Tobacco Products, D.

Lovejoy Hospice

In an effort to help you to be better informed about hospice care in our community, Lovejoy Hospice produces an informative question and answer column each month. Look for our column printed on the fourth Wednesday edition of the Illinois Valley News.

Q: Can I have chemotherapy or radiation therapy at the same time I have Hospice care at home?

A: Perhaps. Hospice is not only the compassionate home care it is so well known for, but it also is an insurance option and benefit.

Insurance companies provide a "menu" of services available to clients. If you have private insurance, you may ask them what your choices are. Some insurance companies classify "hospice" as "home care", so be specific with your questions. At Lovejoy Hospice, we have been successful helping some patients optimize their available benefits.

Medicare and Medicaid do not typically pay simultaneously for both Hospice care and advanced life extending medical procedures for the same diagnosis. Medicare and Medicaid pay Hospice directly, and most hospices limit the chemotherapy and radiation therapy that hospice is able to fund from that pool.

Hospice may consider special therapies such as these and others on an individual basis if they are necessary to relieve (palliate) a symptom and to provide comfort. Physicians and hospices can give information to help patients and families weigh benefits and burdens of any particular therapy so that the patient can choose what is best for him/her.

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

On Jan. 28, the fourth Sunday in ordinary time, the Gospel reading will be from Luke, Chapter 4 (in part): Jesus in the synagogue said, "Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing ... Amen I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place" ... They rose up and drove him out of town.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Sunday, Jan. 21 was an opportunity to appreciate Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. They further the church mission to extend God's promises and protection to the poor, sick, brokenhearted and oppressed.
