Church Reports

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

For Pentecost Sunday on May 27 the Gospel reading is from John 20:19:23 where it is written in part, that behind locked doors because the disciples feared the Jews, Jesus stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." He showed his wounds and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Seventh-day Adventist Church, Cave Junction

Church members had a recent fun-filled weekend at Harris Beach State Park in Brookings. Friday evening everyone gathered at a bonfire at the Hyland motorhome and enjoyed hot drinks.

The women especially appreciated sitting in the warm motorhome singing songs from the "Youth Sings" books. The men kept the fire going and enjoyed the fellowship.

Saturday morning Amy Whitchurch gave each person entering the park amphitheater a sheet of short songs, and all joined in singing. Pastor Verne and Patty led a Bible study program and divided the congregation into groups. Each selected a spokesman, and they were given thought-provoking questions to research in Scriptures. The subject was, "The Bible and Science: Do They Have Anything in Common?"

Each spokesman reported to the entire congregation what was discussed in their group and what they discovered.

Pastor Calvin Smith from Rogue River reported on his latest mission trip to Africa. He was a missionary there for a number of years and learned the languages. His experiences and stories thrilled our hearts.

A bonfire with singing and prayers was held at the Bowlby campsite. Veggie wieners and marshmallows were roasted.

Sunday morning after worship everyone gathered at the Hyland campsite and brought mouth-watering food for brunch. Pastor Hyland flipped pancakes. Carol Bowlby also brought a grill and helped. Lily Vasquez relieved Pastor Verne, so that he could have his share of the hotcakes with all types of toppings.

The weather was perfect and we praised God for an awesome experience.

Another service was held at the Cave Junction Church for those unable to attend the campout.

The Southern Oregon Women's Ministries met Sunday, May 20 in Grants Pass. Many attended from the Cave Junction church. The speaker was Diane Pestus from Portland.

The women of Southern Oregon are looking forward to the annual Southern Oregon Women's Retreat at Milo Adventist Academy near Days Creek June 1 to 3. Kay Rizzo, who has written many books, will be guest speaker. Phone 592-3218 or 218-2667 for more information.

The new church directory is almost completed and will go to press soon.

Monday, May 21, the Madrone Adventist School students took a special field trip aboard a jet-boat on Rogue River. Afterward, they visited the House of Mystery and had a picnic at a nearby park.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

In this week's lesson we learned about Paul and Silas, imprisoned Christian missionaries who chose to stay in prison despite being able to escape. The moral is to stay the course and do the job, whether it's spreading Christianity or other endeavors.

Youth group meets Tuesdays at 6 p.m.
