*Two security surveillance cameras valued at $200 were reported taken from Jubilee Park by persons as yet unknown. Suspects are in mind.

*A 52-year-old Oak Drive man reportedly shot himself in the head, a caller said at 7:52 p.m. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

*The "distracted" driver of a green station wagon which caught fire in the 27000 block of Redwood Hwy. at 8:39 p.m. had friends on scene to assist her, a deputy noted.

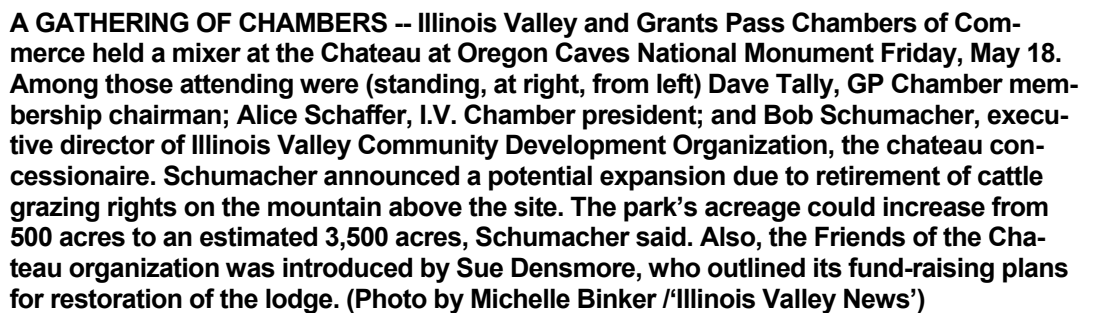

Autopsies are scheduled in connection with two Hugo residents who consumed alcohol and drugs, and were found deceased the next morning, said Josephine County Sheriff's Office (JCSO).

The dead, discovered in “normal sleeping positions” on Monday, May 14, shortly before 11 a.m., were identified as Raymond W. Jennings, 33; and Emily K. Grev, 29.

They were discovered by Graham Kersten, 48. He told JCSO that the two victims were friends. They had visited Kersten and others at a residence on Knights Crossing Road in Hugo.

Due to perceived intoxication, after reported consumption of alcoholic beverages and prescription drugs, it was decided that the two should spend the night. They were found the next morning on the living room floor, and were unresponsive, said JCSO.

Approximately one in 10 commercial drivers checked at a point on Interstate 5 had controlled substances in their bodies, reported Oregon State Police.

That is shown by toxicology tests completed by the OSP Forensic Services Division on nearly 500 voluntarily provided anonymous urine tests during the April Operation Trucker Check XII.

The percentage totals of this trucker check operation were similar to those noted during the first operation in 1998, but there were some increases in positive tests in some drug categories.

"An analysis of urine collected at three of the 12 trucker check operations since 1998 does not demonstrate a significant difference in the presence of controlled substances among the commercial motor carrier driver population," said OSP Sgt. Alan Hageman of the Patrol Services Division.

“The unacceptable part,” he said, “is that nearly one in 10 commercial drivers had controlled substances in their system while operating 80,000-pound vehicle combinations on our highways.”

Operation Trucker Check XII, an around-the-clock three-day interagency inspection and enforcement project, was held April 10 through 12 at the I-5 Woodburn Port of Entry for southbound traffic approximately 18 miles north of Salem.

It involved a team of law enforcement officers and Oregon Dept. of Transportation commercial vehicle inspectors.

They targeted driver impairment related to alcohol, drugs, or fatigue, and vehicle equipment safety. The first operation was held during 1998 at the Ashland Port of Entry and has been held at other locations including Ontario, Cascade Locks, and Klamath Falls.

Unlike the first Operation Trucker Check in '98 -- when nearly 20 percent of the drivers refused to provide voluntary urine samples for testing -- only 4 percent refused to provide a voluntary sample this year.

OSP evidence technicians helped police obtain the urine samples that were forwarded to an OSP forensic laboratory for testing.

Following are the analysis results of the 487 urine samples obtained:

*Eight drivers (1.64 percent) tested positive for the presence of amphetamines, equal to the number of drivers tested positive in '98.

*Eighteen (3.70 percent) tested positive for the presence of cannabinoid (marijuana), nearly double the number of drivers tested positive in '98.

*Two (0.41 percent) tested positive for the presence of methadone.

*Sixteen (3.29 percent) tested positive for opiates (e.g., oxycodone) -- double
