

Floorshow comes to former Ivy Theater as Hometowne Interiors relocates

Cave Junction-based Hometowne Interiors prides itself on rolling out the red carpet, or most any color or texture desired, as one of its customer hallmarks.

Besides carpet for a hallway, a room, a house, or a castle, the business -- which has relocated to 327 Redwood Hwy. in Downtown Cave Junction behind Bi-Rite Auto Parts in the Quonset building adjacent to Stevereno's Family Restaurant -- also offers an equally wide range of flooring material in vinyl, tile or laminates.

"And if we don't have it, or even if it's not in our regular lines, we can order what the customer wants with a bit of information from them," notes Al Hurt, who is amid "semiretiring" from the business.

He's turning it over to his son, Bob, who began training as a teen-ager with "Dad." The younger Hurt thus is well-versed in all aspects of the business.

Hometowne Interiors is open Mondays through Fridays 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The store is open Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The telephone number is 592-2413.

"Free and friendly" estimates are available, whether for carpet or other types of flooring material.

"The community needs to know that we have competitive prices," said the elder Hurt. "There's no need to leave the valley; we're here to serve.

"Contractors are welcome; some have already learned that they don't have to travel to Medford."

Installation also is available, or customers can hire someone else, or even do it themselves.

"Quality is our number-one priority," said Al and Bob. "That and dependability to get the job done, plus honesty, are paramount with us. It's what we do."

Al said that Hometowne Interiors relocated from its previous site at Caves Mall because the building has been sold, and it was time to move to a new location. He's buying the former Ivy Theater, and what was going to be a topless bar, from Larry Goynes, he said. Bi-Rite will stay where it is and rent from him, said Al.

Hometowne Interiors offers top-of-line carpet from numerous companies. Among them are Lewiston, Mohawk, Shaw Industries, Coronet-Beaulieu, and South Wind. Samples and advice are available.

Vinyl suppliers include Mannington and Armstrong. Flooring tile vendors include Armstrong, Metro, Tarkett, Mannington, and Konecto. Many others are available.

Laminate flooring companies include Quick Step and Konecto. Then there are the many suppliers for hardwood floors. Among them are American Tradition, Glacier Pearl, Echo and Guilistar.

"We are a hometown business, and we aim to please," said Bob and Al.

Obituary

Linda L. (Sinkey) Manteufel

A funeral service for Kerby resident Linda L. (Sinkey) Manteufel, 59, who died Wednesday, July 11, 2007, will begin at 11 a.m. Saturday, July 21 at Laurel Cemetery Chapel in Cave Junction, with interment following.

Mrs. Manteufel died at home after an eight-month battle against cancer.

Remembrances can be made to Josephine County Humane Society, 429 N.W. Scenic Drive, Grants Pass OR 97526; or American Cancer Society, 31 W. Sixth St., Medford OR 97501.

Condolences to the Manteufel Family can be made at www.since1928hull.com. Illinois Valley Funeral Directors is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Manteufel was born on Jan. 30, 1948 in Glendale, Calif. to P.E. & LaVerne Frances (Schmoll) Sinkey. In 1962, when she was 14, the family moved from California to Kerby. She graduated in 1966 from Illinois Valley High School.

She continued her education, earning a bachelor of arts degree in physical education and health in 1970 from Southern Oregon University in Ashland. She received her MBA from the same school in 1978.

She enlisted in the U.S. Army and served two years. On Dec. 25, 1977 in East Peoria, Ill., she married Charles W. Manteufel, who survives.

Mrs. Manteufel worked from 1978 to '84 for the Oregon Employment Dept. She then worked as an Adult & Family Services case manager at the state's Cave Junction office from 1984 to 2000. In 2001 she received a teaching certificate for various schools in Josephine County from kindergarten through 12th grade.

She was a member and president of the former Illinois Valley Kiwanis Club. She also was an American Legion member, and the Cave Junction section of the Josephine County Christmas Basket Program.

Mrs. Manteufel enjoyed collecting cookbooks. She also liked gardening, traveling, and garage sale selling and shopping. And she enjoyed fishing for salmon, halibut and bottom fish and giving her catches to charities.

Besides her husband,

Charles Manteufel, of Kerby; surviving are a daughter, Lee-Anne Manzone, of Cave Junction; a son, Charles Manteufel, of Marietta, Okla.; her parents, LaVerne & P.E. Sinkey, of Cave Junction; a brother, Bill Sinkey, of Roseburg; four grandchildren; two nieces; two nephews; and two great-nieces.

Another brother, Lee Sinkey, died in 1995.

Church News

Seventh-day Adventist Church, Cave Junction

By Patty Hyland

Pastor Jack Harris, former president of the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, gave an inspiring appeal for the congregation at 265 Old Stage Road South to prepare to meet their Lord.

His sermon, "Surprise Party," gripped the hearts of everyone attending in the filled-to-capacity church sanctuary. The Power Point pictures of the Savior with out-stretched hands, waiting for His children to accept His gift of salvation and prepare to meet Him in the Heavens, were awe-inspiring.

I Thessalonians 5 was one passage he used for his challenge to help us prepare for Christ's Second Coming.

Following the spiritual feast, the congregation enjoyed a physical feast in the fellowship hall with Harley and Jeannette Stevenson, and Darrell and Carol Bowlby as hosts and hostesses.

John Bazen and Jasper Sossong, Lay evangelists, will continue "The Invitation" meetings at Illinois Valley Grange Hall on Holland Loop every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 7 to 8 p.m. These informal Bible study meetings have been a blessing to many.

Each evening, lovely Bibles, books, and sermon handouts are given to everyone attending. These are free meetings, and no offering is taken.

Co-leaders Carol Atwood and Kathy Morris have informed us that Vacation Bible School will be very special this year. The theme, "Following Jesus," will be carried out in the opening exercises and in each classroom. SonLife games will be played, and fantastic crafts will be made by each age group. Ages 5 to 12 will be accepted.

Older young people will help as teachers' aides and game assistants. Monday, July 30 at 9 a.m. will begin registration, and the fun activities will end at noon. It will be a two-week Vacation Bible School. For more information, phone 592-3218, 592-2032 or 597-4096.

Jehovah's Witnesses

Members from Illinois Valley will attend the free "Follow the Christ" District Convention Friday through Sunday, July 20 through 22 at Portland's Memorial Coliseum Arena beginning at 9:20 a.m.

Anyone can attend, and no collections will be taken. Topics will include improving family life, and drawing closer to God.
