Club & Organization Notes

Diabetes Support Group Of Illinois Valley

There will be a meeting Thursday, Nov. 8 at 1 p.m. Open meetings are held on second Thursdays unless otherwise stated.

Siskiyou Project

An Illinois River salmon viewing hike, led by Rich Nawa, an ecologist, will be held Sunday, Nov. 11 from 1 to 4 p.m., leaving from I.V. Visitor Center.

Participants will carpool to "Forks" State Park to see spawning salmon. Next they will travel to Little Falls on Illinois River near Kerby to see leaping salmon.

For more information phone 476-6648 or visit www.siskiyou.org.

Spiral Living Center

"Introduction to Permaculture" with Don Tipping will be presented as part of the center's continuing workshop series, devoted to sustainable living, from Friday Nov. 9 through Sunday, Nov. 11.

This short-format course will introduce the foundations of permaculture, "a whole-systems design approach for sustainable human settlement." It also will cover fundamentals.

Tipping and his family have stewarded Seven Seeds

Farm in Williams for the past 11 years. Their site is lauded as one of the best examples of small productive permaculture farms in the Northwest.

The course is open to the public, and there is a fee, which includes some meals. Preregistration is required. For more information or to register phone 592-2693 or email spiral@frontiernet.net.

Rogue Valley Symphony Orchestra
A "Christmas Fantasy" Fashion Show to benefit the orchestra will be held Wednesday, Nov. 28 at Rogue Valley Country Club, 2660 Hillcrest Road, Medford.

Festivities will begin at 11 a.m. with a no-host bar and silent auction. A luncheon and fashion show of holiday attire from seven Medford-area stores will follow.

Proceeds will support the symphony's concert series and classical music programs in schools.

For reservations and information, phone 899-2927.
