Holiday gig by Dell'Arte Saturday

On Saturday Dec. 1 at 7 p.m. the Dell'Arte theater troupe will bring its free Christmas show to Lorna Byrne Middle School in Cave Junction.

The show, The Hunting of the Snark, is a musical comedy based on a poem by Lewis Carroll, author of Alice in Wonderland. Although there is no admission charge, Dell'Arte asks that attendees bring a canned food donation for a local food bank. And a hat will be passed at the end of the show.

"Many in Takilma know about Dell'Arte," said a production aide, "but those new to the community are encouraged to attend this original and very funny theatre troupe's performance." Dell'Arte is a European style physical theater school, based near Arcata, Calif. The Dell'Arte Players Company has represented the USA in theater festivals around the world since the 1970s.

Nov. 20 at the Junction Inn's Boswell Room. The fellowship is awarded in recognition of a Rotarian's contribution to the Rotary Foundation. (Photo by Michelle Binker, Illinois Valley News)

RCC Band will present Fall Concert in GP on Dec. 1

Directed by veteran, award-winning musician T. Lund, of Cave Junction, the Rogue Community College Band will present its free, public Fall Concert Saturday, Dec. 1.

The free program will begin at 7 p.m. in the Rogue Bldg. on RCC's Redwood Campus in Grants Pass.

The orchestra will perform selections of Corelli, Bach, Mozart, Brahms and Debussy. It also will perform two selections for the holiday season during its approximately hour-long concert.

"It will be a time of beautiful classical music, and we're looking forward to a big crowd," said Lund.

Lund is the orchestra's new director. He has lived in Josephine County since 1993, when hired by Three Rivers School District to be music director for Lorna Byrne Middle School and Illinois Valley High School in Cave Junction.

A fight with throat cancer caused his early retirement from the school district in 2005.

Lund is an active trombonist, conductor, and music education clinician throughout Rogue Valley and around Oregon.

Regarding the Dec. 1 concert he said, "There will be a special donation container at the door for anyone wishing to help our orchestra find funds to purchase percussion equipment, music stands and music. The college does not fund this music program, except for the instructor's time. Therefore we must raise the funds ourselves in order to improve our sound and function in the community."

Lund added, "The orchestra is always looking for more musicians to enhance our program. We encourage all those 'former' musicians ('You know who you are') to retrieve those instruments in your attic and join us.

"Remember," Lund said, "this is a 'class,' and credit is available through RCC."

State covers pets in disasters

Oregon's pets, service animals and farm animals will now be included in state disaster plans thanks to a bill signed into law by Gov. Kulongoski.

The "Animals in Disaster" legislation (S.B. 570) requires the Oregon Office of Emergency Management to prepare a written emergency plan that provides for the evacuation, transport and temporary sheltering of companion animals, service animals and farm animals during a major disaster or an emergency.
