An Oregon Chautauqua program, Magic Carpet Made of Steel, attracted more than 30 people Saturday, April 26 to Kerby. Grants Pass resident Jeni Foster sang 14 railroad songs and provided insightful commentary. The program, sponsored by Kerbyville Museum, in honor of the grand reopening for 2008, also included homemade cookies by museum board Vice President Lloyd Deen Davis. And Dennis Strayer, board president, brought some of his models. Robert Hirning train photos also were displayed. (Photos by I.V. News)

Old age: not without its advantages

Some perks of being older than 65 (or in the relative vicinity).

*Kidnappers are not much interested in you.

*In a hostage situation it's likely that you will be released first.

*No one expects you to run -- anywhere.

*People phone at 9 p.m. and ask, "Did I wake you?"

*Friends no longer view you as a hypochondriac.

*There is nothing left to learn the hard way.

*Most everything you buy now won't wear out.

*You can eat supper at 4 p.m. without an excuse.

*You can live without sex, but not your eyeglasses.

*You get into heated arguments about pension plans.

*You no longer think of speed limits as a challenge.

*You quit trying to hold in your stomach no matter who walks into the room.

*You sing along with elevator music.

*Your eyes won't get much worse.

*Your investment in health insurance is finally beginning to pay off.

*Your joints are more accurate than meteorologists from the National Weather Service.

*Your secrets are safe with your friends because they can't remember them either.

*Your supply of brain cells is finally down to manageable size.

*You can't remember where you read this.

Relate this to everyone you can remember.

I have come finally to a simple philosophy of work. I enjoy what I do and do the best I can. That is enough.
