

U U U

There are many scenic trails for hiking and equestrian use including Dutchy Creek Trail (#1146), Briggs Creeks Trail (#1132), Taylor Creek Trail (#1142), and Onion Way Trail (#1281). The horse camp provides 20 campsites with horse corrals, fire rings, picnic tables and trees that provide shade. Water and vault toilet are on site.

The camp, maintained by the Sourdough Chapter of Back Country Horsemen, is closed during winter. No reservations, modest camping fee. For conditions, phone Galice Ranger District at (541) 471-6500.

Sturgis Fork Horse Camp:

From Star (Applegate) Ranger Station, go south on Upper Applegate Road 12 miles (past Applegate Lake) and turn right on Carberry Creek Road. Follow Carberry 7 miles and turn left on Sturgis Fork Road (FS Rd 1020).

Follow Sturgis Fork Road for 7.5 miles and turn right on Road #1020-600 and continue .5 mile to the spur on the left for the trailhead. Elevation is 5,100 feet.

Undeveloped camping at the trailhead, fire pits, and corral are available. Contact Applegate Ranger District (541) 899-3800 for

Continued on page 28

Back Country Horsemen

of America is a non-profit corporation of state organizations, affiliates, and at-large members.

We are dedicated to preserving the historical use of recreational stock in the back-country commensurate with our heritage.

BCH of Oregon invites you to become actively involved in preserving your back-country stock use by joining the local Sourdough Chapter.

jswood@frontiernet.net
or 541-596-2488
for membership information

J'S FEED & TACK

Hay	Dog Food
Grain	Cat Food
Straw	Poultry Feed
Vitamins	Guinea Pig Food
Vaccines	Bird Food
Dewormers	Rabbit Food
Tack	plus a SMILE
Pet Supplies	& Much More

28409 Redwood Hwy.
541-592-4996