information. Northwest Forest Pass required.

Lake Selmac: Exit Hwy. 199 at Lakeshore Drive in Selma and follow it to McMullen Creek Road. Turn and follow McMullen to the campground on the south side of the lake. There is horse camping with corrals, and room is available to park horse trailers near a general-use area.

A nearby campground for tent, RV and yurt camping is available. For reservations: (800) 452-5687.

There is access to hilly park trails. A fee applies if you trailer in your horse. No fee to pedestrians or people walking in with horses. Closed in winter. For details and a trail map, visit the Josephine County Webpage at co.josephine.or.us/Page.asp?NavID+492.

Yontocket Cemetery Trail:

Take Hwy. 199 south from Cave Junction to the Hwy. 197 bypass just beyond Jedediah Smith Rewood State Park at Hiouchi. Follow 197 north to Hwy 101. Turn left toward Crescent City.

Take a right on Lake Earl Drive and follow road signs to Tolowa Dunes State Park. Park at the southern trailhead near Kellogg Beach. You must pack in gear and food as there is no motorized vehicle access.

The horse camp is halfway between the southern trailhead and Yontocket Cemetery. You can also access the trails and camp from the north end beside a dairy farm. Trails crisscross dunes from a cypress forest to the beach just north of Tolowa Lake.

The horse camp has water, corrals, tent camp sites, picnic tables, and two rustic vault toilets. It is in the Redwood National Forest.
