Family friendly features set for Art Walk Friday, Oct. 10 in CJ

By JUDY HOYLE

Second Friday Art Walk will celebrate Halloween this month with a variety of free, family friendly activities from 5 to 8 p.m. on Oct. 10.

This month's Featured Artist, Dave Kendall, crafts beautiful glass pieces using ancient and modern techniques. His locally owned and operated business, Kendall Art Glass, has a national reputation. The public can meet Kendall and view his individually handcrafted work, which will be displayed through October at I.V. Visitor Center.

Art Walk's Featured Guest, Loren Conner, is known regionally and nationally for his award-winning trike, displayed at Subway Restaurant. The "Art of Invention" is celebrated here with an interesting mix of leather and classic car parts, which Conner has airbrushed to resemble flames.

Taylor's Country Store will present national award-winning photographer Jim Krois' Seascapes, Landscapes, Portraits & More. Enjoy Finny's meat or cheese lasagna, fresh salmon or regular entrees while listening to the I.V. String Band play their trademark 21st century back-porch music.

Farther north at Embroidered Adaptations, Joyce Abrams will show her new line of Forest Edge Farm chic and cozy llama-wool hats in a variety of natural hues for fall and winter. Embroidered Adaptations also carries sports-wear, souvenirs and gifts.

Across Redwood Hwy., the I.V. Senior Thrift Shop will offer the Art of Vintage Clothing for Work & Play. This "discount general store" carries all types of items from toys and furniture to hardware and household items.

Next to the DMV office, the I.V. Safe House Alliance will display adorable home décor items called Flannel Cat Creations by Susie Ellwood. These are handmade with antique linens and recycled quilts and make unique gifts.

Also at IVSHA, at 6 p.m. only, Suzanne Vautier will give a free 15-minute presentation on Edible Weeds – wild plants available in a variety of settings including backyards around the valley. She will teach a full workshop later this autumn at the Spiral Living Center (592-3642) in Takilma.

From 5 to 7 p.m., Noralene Harland will demonstrate the fun and fantastic art of Sidewalk Pastel Drawing at the County Building. This popular art form was celebrated this past weekend at the annual Art Along the Rogue Festival in Grants Pass. The roots of street painting began in 16th century Italian religious festivals where folk artists or (Madonnari) would replicate famous paintings of "The Madonna." More can be found on the Web under "Street Painting Society."

Between 7 and 9 p.m. at the Josephine County Bldg., there will be a Halloween Costume Dance & Bake Sale.

Nacho Mama's will explore the Art of Politics by offering voter registration. Free face painting will also be available until 8 p.m. Nacho Mama's will be serving full menu and bar until 9:30 p.m.

Kimberly Classick's delightful Heavenly Imagery features wedding photography as well as portraits and landscapes. She will be at

Guitar Classics at Chateau

The second in a series of Classics at the Chateau will conclude the 2008 special event season at the historic Chateau at Oregon Caves National Monument.

Classical virtuoso guitarist Scott Kritzer, from Portland, will present rare performances on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10 and 11 at 8 p.m. The program is sponsored by Illinois Valley Community Development Organization (IVCDO).

Kritzer will bring with him several of his advanced students. The programs will include compositions ranging from Bach to Scott Joplin; and Baroque dances to opera and modern Jazz.

To make reservations for dinner or rooms, or to obtain tickets, phone 592-3400; or visit ivcdo.projecta.com and click on The Chateau.

The Chateau will close for the season on Wednesday, Oct. 15, said IVCDO.

Jen Ambrose to help LTA

Cave Junction's Second Friday Art Walk will offer the first Halloween party of the season on Oct. 10, and The Jen Ambrose Band will perform for a special fund-raiser.

The performance in the Josephine County Bldg. at Redwood Hwy. and Lister Street is aimed at helping support Learning Through Art (LTA), the Illinois River Valley Arts Council program for youth of Illinois Valley.

Through this award-winning program, Illinois Valley youth are given the opportunity to experience different cultures through music, dance and visual arts. In-school workshops provide hands-on learning designed to enrich the standard curriculum at no cost to the participants.

Each project is designed to engage and inspire students while broadening understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

Standard hours for Art Walk are 5 to 8 p.m. The Halloween Party & Bake Sale is slated for the end of the evening from 7 to 9. The admission fee will be reduced to $5 for all costumed participants. The public can attend. For further information, phone 592-4444 during regular business hours.

~Judy Hoyle

Home Valley Bank from 4 to 6 p.m., and her work will be displayed during regular bank hours through October.

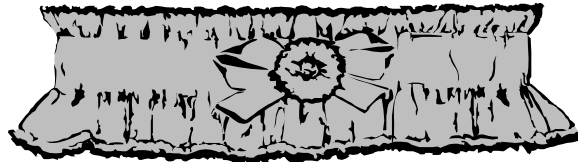

Also through October, Dale Brain's Domino and Treasure Boxes will be displayed at Eye Care Group, Optometric Physicians on Caves Hwy. during regular business hours. These beautiful dovetailed boxes are made of exotic hardwoods, and are worth a visit.

Second Friday Art Walk is sponsored by the Illinois River Valley Arts Council with support from Evergreen Federal Bank, Cabin Chemistry, Jefferson State Financial Group, and R.H. Ziller & Co.
