'Bob' Perkins

Robert LeRoy "Bob" Perkins, 87, of Cave Junction, died Monday, May 4, 2009 at a Grants Pass nursing center.

A memorial service will begin at 1 p.m. Friday, May 15 at Illinois Valley Funeral Directors chapel in Cave Junction with Father Ron Nelson officiating. Interment will be at Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington, Va.

Mr. Perkins was born on June 8, 1921 in Washington, Ind. to Roy & Anna Perkins. He received a forestry degree at Syracuse University in Syracuse, N.Y. He was a U.S. Navy veteran and served on the USS Kaula, and the destroyers USS Thornhill and USS Bernadou during World War II. He liked being known as a "Tin Can Sailor" because of his service aboard destroyers.

After his Navy discharge he worked for the Fish & Game Dept. in Redding, Calif., then joined the California State Parks Service working as a park ranger in Soledad and at Hearst Castle. He later worked as chief park ranger at Santa Cruz Natural Bridges State Park; then moved to Shasta and worked as a chief park ranger with law enforcement credentials.

After moving to Crescent City, Calif. in Del Norte County, he was in charge of five parks from Crescent City to Eureka. In 1982 he moved from Crescent City to Cave Junction, where he lived for 27 years.

He was a member of United Flying Octogenarians, Grants Pass Elks Lodge BPOE 1584, Kamloops Society; and E Clampus Vitus, an historical society. His hobbies included flying, golfing and commercial fishing for salmon.

Surviving are three daughters, Roberta Elkins, of Shasta, Calif., Aleda Ely, of Redding, and Sheri Mels, of Sacramento; two sons, Matthew Perkins, of Grants Pass, and Joel Perkins, of Cave Junction; four grandchildren; and two great-granddaughters.

Illinois Valley Funeral Directors is in charge of arrangements.

Leslie J. Buell Jr.

Former Cave Junction resident Leslie James Buell Jr., 86, of Roseburg, died Monday, May 4, 2009 at a nursing center in Roseburg.

A graveside service will begin at 2 p.m. Wednesday, May 13 at Deer Creek Cemetery in Selma with Pastor Monte Pope, of Selma Baptist Church, officiating.

Mr. Buell was born on Feb. 19, 1923 in San Francisco to Leslie & Rosamond (Tuttle) Buell. He married the former Dolores Solomon 50 years ago, and she preceded him in death. After serving for 20 years he retired from the U.S. Air Force. He graduated from Rogue Community College in Grants Pass with degree in small engine repair.

He was a member of the American Legion. His hobbies included tinkering with automobiles, small engines and things in his shop.

Surviving are two daughters, Loree Lawson, of Suther-lin, and Rosie Cook, of Kingsman, Ariz.; a son, Leslie J. Buell III, of Etna, Calif.; a brother, Jerry Buell, of Cave Junction; four grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Rosamond Buell & Leslie James Buell Sr.

Hull & Hull Funeral Directors is in charge of arrangements.

Juanita Kathleen Winton Goforth

Juanita Kathleen Winton Goforth, born in LeRoy, N.Y. on Oct. 7, 1925 to Vernon and Clara Goff, passed to her rest April 7, 2009 in Fresno, Calif. at the age of 84.

Juanita owned and operated the Sugar Pine Lodge care home in Cave Junction for 15 years.

She was active in the Cave Junction Seventh-day Adventist Church, giving generously of her time in the community services program, which gives clothing and food boxes to more than 135 people weekly.

Her love for children brought her to help at the Vacation Bible School each year. She also served as Superintendent of the Sabbath School and taught some of the children's classes.

She had many hobbies, one of which was her interest in oil painting.

She leaves to mourn, her husband, Howard Goforth, of Fresno; son Delbert Winton; daughter Deanna Sandage, of Crescent City, Calif.; granddaughter Dawn Teller, of Glendale, Ore.; and two great-grandsons of Glendale, as well as a host of friends and neighbors.

A memorial service will be held for Juanita on Saturday, May 23 at 2 p.m. at the Seventh-day Adventist Church on 265 South Old Stage Road, with Pastor Verne Hyland officiating. The Sanctuary Choir will sing along with soloists.

Donations in memory of Juanita Winton Goforth may be sent to Better Life Broadcasting Network, P.O. Box 766, Grants Pass OR 97528. (Sponsored Memorial) to have a legislative fix to it."

Josephine County Sheriff Gil Gilbertson expressed support for HB 2727 and the rights of concealed weapons permit holders during his Wednesday, May 6 appearance on the Grants Pass

KAJO Radio talk show.

"If someone wants their information kept private, I'll do anything I can to keep it private," Gilbertson said.

Gilbertson stated that his office issued 117 concealed weapons permits during January and 136 in March.

Better Life Broadcasting Network (UHF channel 48 and cable channel 14 for Illinois Valley) is upgrading its programming and adding new programs for children and youth.

Recently it purchased two stations, The Satellite Networks DISH channel 30 and DIRECTV channel 30 in Roseburg and Eugene that will reach more than half a million viewers. Curry, Klamath, Lake, Jackson, and Josephine counties in Oregon and Siskiyou County in California are reached with uplifting programming from Better Life.

To receive a schedule for programs or sign up for a June 12 to 14 camp meeting, write to Better Life Broadcasting Network, P.O. Box 766, Grants Pass OR 97528; phone (877) 741-2588; or e-mail kbln@betterlifetv.tv. People also can visit betterlife.tv and might wish to receive the free monthly magazine.

Dr. Williard Register was guest speaker during the Sabbath worship service May 2. His topic, My Testimony, was interesting and inspiring. He challenged everyone to spend 30 minutes in prayer each day and more than two-thirds of the congregation accepted. He has held several seminars in Grants Pass and hopes to hold one in Cave Junction.

Community Services served 54 families last Tuesday, affecting more than 100 persons in the community. Each family received a large box of food items, and some asked for clothing and blankets. Our Community Service Center at 265 S. Old Stage Road is open Tuesdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Food boxes are distributed at 1 and 3 p.m.

On Saturday, May 23 at 2 p.m. there will be a memorial service for Juanita Winton Goforth, a longtime resident of Cave Junction. Pastor Verne Hyland will officiate, and the Sanctuary Choir will sing.

Services are held Saturdays at 9:20 and 11 a.m. Prayer & Praise services are Tuesdays at 7 p.m. Choir practice is held Tuesdays at 6 p.m. Flute Choir meets Thursdays at 6 p.m. All services are open to the public.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Of all the examples Jesus used to make people understand His words, the following might be the clearest, taken in part from John 15:

"... I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing." We need to be connected to God through our faith.

Church calendar: Thursdays, 4 p.m., Good Shepherd Singers rehearse; Sundays, 9:15 a.m., all-comers Sunday school followed by worship and Communion.
