August ArtWalk attractions are abundant

Cave Junction's Second Friday ArtWalk is brimming with delightful experiences for art lovers.

Attractions will range from meeting award-winning clay and basketry artist Kris Schumacher, to hearing live music from 2009 IVHS valedictorian Sara Austin. And there will be many more activities and attractions along the way.

Austin, who will be heading off for college, will give farewell performances of her popular original compositions at 5:30, 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. at Subway Restaurant.

Kris Schumacher studied pottery in Indiana and later, weaving and basket-making in Illinois. These separate disciplines inform her uniquely beautiful pieces which reflect the natural beauty of the Pacific Northwest.

Schumacher is a recent winner of an art award from Rogue Community College, and her work will be displayed at I.V. Visitor Center throughout the month. Also at the visitor center, guests can experience "The Art of Summer Cuisine," specially prepared by Billie Coakley, owner of Cabin Chemistry.

Daniel Emery, ArtWalk Featured Artist for August, will be available at Taylor's Country Store to discuss his recent photography. Another Illinois Valley High School grad, Caleb Orton, an up-and-rising local talent, will serenade dinner patrons accompanied by his acoustic guitar. Menu specials will be prime rib, and halibut with bear-naise sauce.

A few steps farther north, Ravenswood Gallery will feature live music from Matty, Dave and Sol. Visitors are encouraged to visit new Website: ravenswood-gallery.com to preview gallery treasures in burl art, crystals, glass, leatherwork, painting, photography and more — all of which will be on sale at 10 percent off, Friday evening only.

Next door at Pair a Dice, artist Ashly Wissler, another IVHS grad, will show her pencil portraits, and "Real and Surreal" oil paintings.

At Embroidered Adaptations, instrument builder Michael Scott will display some of the pieces he has built as he demonstrates "The Fine Art of Violin-Making." Visitors will be welcome to view the antiques, furniture and gifts also available at this garment-enhancement business.

At the Illinois Valley Safe House Alliance next door to the DMV office, rock sculptor Sandy Kaminsky will show his new line of work: picture and mirror frames covered in a variety of shells, rocks and found objects.

Visitors here also can view how Avon supports survivors of domestic abuse and cancer. Linda Corey-Woodward will be available to answer questions and demonstrate a new line of botanical products. Refreshments will be served.

ArtWalk will welcome Blue Lotus Wellness Center, located above the state liquor store. Holistic health consultant Joanna Jackson has planned a grand opening featuring art, food and entertainment, including work by metal sculptor Curtis Bloom, and Patricia Bloom, who will demonstrate Hafla Belly Dancing.

Award-winning poet Michael Spring will read from his books blue crow and Mudsong, as well as new works. Wall art watercolors by Deborah Dawson will be displayed; and Kimberly Fujita oil paintings.

Raw food treats prepared by Ania Semper, a licensed massage therapist, will be available for tasting. The Upstairs Gallery also will be open for ArtWalk. Gabriella Salas-Groth will present her "Soul Shine Project" and there will be wine tasting.

ArtWalk sponsor, Illinois River Valley Arts Council (IRVAC) will hold an open house at the Josephine County Bldg. from 5 to 8 p.m. Aug. 14, and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 15.

Friday night will feature a 20-quilt preview of the Valley Chicks' October display and a continuing quilt raffle. Also, Malaya and Gerry Canning from Happy Camp will show their paintings and photography.

"Caves and Bears" will be displayed both days: There will be four Grants Pass "Bearfest" bears painted by Lane Cosner, as well as Seattle artist Hester Mallonee's acrylic paintings expressing "Impressions of the Oregon Caves."

A free craft project will be available for young and old. IRVAC will sell juice and soft drinks in support of Learning Through Art. Special placemats created to help fund Wanda Goines' mural of the Oregon Caves also will be available.

Blackberry Jam will be celebrated Aug. 14 and 15 at Nacho Mama's with Nature photography by Kay Ekwall, local vendor displays on the parking lot, live music and a variety of blackberry treats. Special Productions, next to SOFCU Community Credit Union, also is celebrating August with 10 percent off everything in the store, Aug. 14 and 15 only.

There will be a special showing of Morning Dove Rhodes silver with semi-precious stone jewelry at the Eye Care Group, Optometric Physicians. These pieces are crafted in contemporary Native American design and will be available for viewing during regular business hours. Jim Lettis' photography will be displayed here and at Home Valley Bank during regular business hours.

IRVAC is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to enriching lives by fostering creativity and providing art education and art experiences. For further information, phone 592-4444 or visit irvac.com.
