

Tales from the Police Blotter

(Editor's Note: Factual information for "Blotter" is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law Charges can be amended or dismissed.)
***

Friday, Jan. 28

- * It would seem that a truck with jet fuel should probably have a fire extinguisher and probably shouldn't be driving carelessly in O'Brien.
- * After 20 unwanted text messages, a man on Finch Road finally got his coat back, along with a warning about telephonic harassment.
- * Morphine was reported missing from a residence in the 9000 block of Caves Hwy., but a short while later a follow-up phone call stated that the meds were found.
- * When a father on Pine Cone Drive found a bottle of vodka in his son's room, he phoned authorities to review his options on what to do when his son was making poor choices.
- * Michael Walter Pason, 49, and his dog "Buck" were en route to the

- I.V. substation where Pason provided a blood alcohol count of .26 percent.
- * Benjamin David Steers, 18, was cited for minor in possession, driving under the influence of intoxicants and reckless driving after a traffic stop on Schumacher.
  - * A female on West Lister saw a flyer for Kyron and offered to help find him because she thought she knew where he was.

Saturday, Jan. 29

- * The horse in the 900 block of Reeves Creek Road was a traffic hazard, but it was not starving as originally reported. The healthy horse's owner was advised of her responsibilities regarding the horse being in the roadway.

Sunday, Jan. 30

- * Nothing interesting logged in the Illinois Valley today, or missing log for Jan. 30.

Monday, Jan. 31

- * Thieves left their knife behind

- after they siphoned a quarter tank of gas from the C.J. Head Start bus.
- * Gregory Wayne Sampley, 58, was cited for alcohol prohibited on public premises, and trespassed from Jubilee Park for six months when he was seen drinking a can of "Earthquake" in Jubilee Park.
  - * First the landlord shut off the power, then he kept pounding on the door and windows, a tenant in Krauss Lane complained. Deputies cleared up the miscommunication once they learned that the landlord was working on a faulty breaker, but he couldn't get the tenant to answer the door so he could explain what was going on.
  - * A man mining at Eight Dollar Mountain found bags containing checks and paper work, believed to be from a burglary at a saloon in C.J.

Tuesday, Feb. 1

- * One traffic cone was found in the middle of the road by S. Kerby Ave and Shumacher at 10 p.m. By 1 a.m., there were three large barrel type cones and ten pillar traffic cones arranged to block one lane of traffic on N. Redwood Highway.

- * Aman on Queen of Bronze Road believes somebody threw a poisonous egg inside his dog enclosure. How could someone get poison into the shell without the yolk running out?
- * Transients wearing hats and jackets were offering marijuana to a teenager walking along N. Redwood Hwy. at 1:20 p.m.
- * A 15-speed Roadmaster bicycle with an orange frame was found on property in the 29000 block of Redwood Hwy. The woman that found the bike said she would contact the newspaper to place a found report. (Phone 541-592-2541 for Illinois Valley News Classifieds...)
- * Photos sent to a boyfriend's cell phone may seem harmless, but what happens when he loses the phone and whoever finds it shows those photos to various other subjects?
- * Horse playing Hide & Seek on Reeves Creek again.
- * Law enforcement provided phone numbers for Oregon Law Center and Senior Law Hotline for a woman seeking assistance with an eviction in Lister Way.

Wednesday, Feb. 2

- * Two friendly dogs have been hanging around for a while on Finch Road, and it was undetermined whether they had been dumped there or if they belonged to someone living under the green bridge.
- * James Irvin Mutina, 59, was arrested for a warrant for failure to appear on criminal trespass charges, and cited for violation of C.J. city ordinance prohibiting alcohol on public premises in the 200 block of S. Redwood Hwy.
- * Charles Derieft Brooks, 63, was cited for (three guesses)... violation of city ordinance alcohol prohibited on public premises in the 400 block of S. Redwood Hwy.
- * Jeremy Austin Estep, 23, was arrested for a prior domestic violence charge, and arrangements were being made for Estep's dog. However, the Josephine County Jail would not detain Estep since it was a "cold assault." He was cited to appear on 4th degree assault charges on Feb. 24.
- * The unoccupied blue car in the ditch on Redwood Hwy. just up the hill from Rockydale Road was not the result of an accident—the vehicle lost a front tire and pulled off the roadway.
