The IVHS baseball and softball teams played in their last non-league games last week, gearing up for league season.

On Tuesday, April 14, the Lady Cougar softball squad went up against McKinleyville during a home game. The girls suffered a tough loss, with McKinleyville taking the win 25-0.

The Lady Cougars played better against Bandon/Pacific during a doubleheader on Saturday, April 19, during an away game. In the first game, the girls were able to stay close with Bandon team, but ultimately lost 8-9. In the second game, IVHS came back with vengeance, winning 8-0 against the Bandon Tigers.

The Lady Cougars are currently 3-10 going into league play.

The boys had a slight break this last week, with only a doubleheader against Bandon/Pacific while on the road. During the first game, IVHS won 9-3.

Jason Bardeimier pitched the first four innings with his teammate Zach Welch pitching the last three. Both pitchers were able to hold Bandon to one hit during the game. IVHS had a total of nine hits.

In the second game, the cold and wind got to both teams, making it harder for the players to perform at their best.

Lander Nordal pitched the whole game and again held Bandon to just one hit.

The guys currently are 8-3 going into the regular season.

The baseball team was set to go up against Cascade Christian on Tuesday, April 22. On Friday, April 25, the boys will square off against St. Mary's in a doubleheader while at home.
