Valley Girls looking for quilts

There's a hint of fall in the air - which means that it's time to get your entries organized for the seventh annual Valley Girls Quilt Show set for Oct. 17 through Oct. 19 at the Illinois Valley Senior Center.

Entry forms are available at the Illinois Valley Senior Center, 520 E. River St. or by contacting Carol Dickson at 541-660-3136. Or, you can email the group at valleygirlsqiltshow@gmail.com

The annual show offers an opportunity to showcase the talent of local quilters. Quilts can be hand or machine-pieced, appliqued or quilted, bed-sized quilts, art quilts, baby quilts and wall hangings are all welcome.

Early entry is encouraged to allow the group time to plan for the hanging of the quilts. Deadline for returning forms is Sept. 30. There is no fee to enter your quilts, but due to venue constraints, the show is only open to Illinois Valley residents.

This year's nature-themed opportunity quilt is called "Treasures of our Valley" with tickets available for $1 each or 6 for $5. The quilt is being shown and tickets are being sold at various events throughout the Valley until the drawing, which is set for the last day of the quilt show.

Another way the Valley Girls are showing their love of the Valley is by showcasing quilters in special locales throughout the Illinois Valley in a 2015 Calendar of Quilts. The 12-month calendar includes local business sponsors as well as photos of colorful quilts taken throughout Illinois Valley. Calendars cost $10 each and they will be available for sale beginning at the Illinois Valley Lions Club Labor Day Festival. Later, they will be available from group members. There is a limited press run for the remaining calendars that are available for sale at the Quilt Show.

All proceeds from the show, the calendar, and the opportunity quilt ticket sales benefit the Illinois Valley Boys and Girls Club and the Illinois Valley High School football helmet safety program. Last year, the Valley Girls donated $6,000 to local youth organizations.

Cameron, Nicolas and Erin Beck broke last year's record of 110 books with a new family best of 132, with Sarah, Mary and Moses White right behind them with 126!

The summer reading program for children aged 0-12 years ran from June 21 to August 2 at all four branches of Josephine Community Libraries.

This free, six-week program called "Fizz, Boom, Read!" engaged children to explore a different theme each week such as astronomy, meteorology, zoology, oceanography and discoveries and inventions.

Barbara Ford from IRVAC hosted theme-related crafts every Saturday at the IV Branch.
