

Tales from the Rural Patrol

(Editor's Note: Factual information for 'Tales' is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Charges can be amended or dismissed.)

Monday, Oct. 20

*From the 7400 block of Takilma Road came a call at 8:53 a.m. about a man with an ax in someone's barn. He was said to have held up the ax to threaten the reporting party's brother, who has a gun. The intruder was not located, and a report on second-degree burglary, possibly involving firearms, was pending.

*After a report of a dead person in the 7600 block of Holland Loop, Illinois Valley Fire District (IVFD) responded. It was termed a death due to natural causes.

*There was a report of a vehicle being stolen from N. Old Stage Road, and it was located in the middle of Kerby Mainline.

*Theft of a .45-caliber firearm from a gun safe at a home on Thompson Creek Road was reported.

*Harassment by a neighbor was complained about on Clear Creek Road in the Selma area. The complainant is worried that the neighbor is becoming delusional, and cited a statement by him about using lethal force.

*A possibly mentally unstable man was reported in the Tycer Crossing area. Harassment was indicated.

*There was a call from O'Brien road about a guy who has thrown rocks at people, trespassed and broken locks.

*The fellow reported in someone's barn on Takilma Road was said to have returned close to 3 p.m., but left on a bicycle.

Outside the Valley

*There were 14 calls including one from a man who said that two of his employees came to his house while he was sleeping and injected him with something that made him delusional.

Tuesday, Oct. 21

*At 9:25 a.m. a 911 hang-up call was received from the 29000 block of Redwood Hwy. Upon call-backs only static and then a busy signal were heard. The call was termed "beyond available resources" (BAR) by the Josephine County Sheriff's Office (JCSO).

*The manager at Ray's Food Place in Selma told people in a former school bus on store property to stop using store electricity and move on, but they refused. He added that the people were using illegal drugs. When a deputy contacted the trespassers they said that they could be gone in five hours. That was agreeable to the manager, who cut their power.

*JCSO deputies and Oregon State Police (OSP) troopers were advised of a gold-colored Chevy pickup truck being driven northbound on Redwood Hwy. from the north side of Selma, as its driver was being extremely reckless.

*In the 1400 block of Rockydale Road, said a man (name not in log/NIL), his vehicle was forced off the road by someone driving a red Toyota pickup truck. The complainant said that his vehicle incurred significant damage and that the other driver left without providing information, then returned, but left again.

*At the north end of CJ a situation "resolved itself" although it initially appeared that someone was going to harm someone else.

*Identity theft seemed to be the case when a Rockydale Road resident said that someone used his info to file a claim with the IRS.

*Someone (NIL) driving a silver-colored Mustang was warned about speeding on Rockydale Road.

*The Clackamas County Sheriff's Office asked JCSO to check for a wanted person on Lakeshore Drive. The person was located, but the county jail wouldn't accept him, apparently because his charge was not serious enough. So JCSO called it BAR and notified Clackamas County.

*At S. Redwood Hwy. and E. Lister Street a deputy responded with IVFD and American Medical Response (AMR) for a "man down" call.

*A man in the 37000 block of Redwood Hwy. said that his wife phoned to say that she was thrashing the house and then was going to come kill him in Downtown CJ. He was advised to phone 911 if she showed up.

*Animal Control took charge of a loose black pit bull with a black harness but no tags on S. Hussey Avenue.

*Two guys in a speeding car northbound on Redwood Hwy. from Selma were wanted after it was reported to OSP that one of the guys pointed a gun at another driver. The car was stopped in Grants Pass; details were not provided in the log.

Outside the Valley

*Thirteen calls listed.

Wednesday, Oct. 22

*First-degree burglary at an unoccupied home on Jonathan Court was reported.

*Criminal mischief was reported at Illinois Valley High School. No details were in the log.

*Several transients outside the Josephine County Bldg. in Downtown Cave Junction were told to leave the area by a deputy shortly prior to noon.

*On Garner Road a woman said that she was scared of her father, who lives there with her and her daughter. Domestic violence was reported, but a deputy found no evidence of a crime. The dad left prior to the deputy's arrival, and then the daughter left the residence.

Outside the Valley

*Among 19 calls were several residential burglaries and an incident at Rogue Community College in which a woman had to lock herself in her car because of her idiot boyfriend acting like a (dirty word).

Thursday, Oct. 23

*No incidents reported in Illinois Valley.

Outside the Valley

*Sixteen calls.

Friday, Oct. 24

*Upon finding "a small tree" on the roadway in the 1900 of Reeves Creek Road, a deputy removed it, "leafing" the way clear.

*Close to 10 a.m. a motorist (NIL) crashed his or her vehicle into a tree in the 1900 block of Lakeshore Drive, and was taken to a hospital by AMR. IVFD also responded to assist.

*At the north end of Cave Junction two transients were "putting items in front of the building and walked away." Extra patrol was requested. It was noted that the transients had been advised earlier to move along.

Outside the Valley

*There were 12 calls including one from Wolf Creek about $400 cash and a computer being stolen from a home, and another from Merlin reporting a home break-in resulting in "damage to 11 window screens and a cable and phone box."
