

TALES...

*At 2:43 p.m., law enforcement officers were unable to locate a car at the end of E. Fork Street that had been reported by BLM.

*Teen-age boys were racing a dark brown Datsun pickup truck up and down N. Old Stage Road by Madrona Drive. The teens were yelling and looking for their lost dog that jumped out of the truck at Shop Smart. They nearly hit a mother pushing a stroller at 4:46 p.m.

*Shuffling sounds were heard during a 911-call from Crooks Creek Road at 5:22 p.m.

*A woman was physically fighting and trying to get out of a gray mini-van with California license plates. The van was last seen heading up Caves Hwy. at 5:24 p.m., but attempts to locate the vehicle failed.

*It was difficult to determine if yelling and background noises from a 911-call were a disturbance or some type of sports activity. The call originated from 520 W. River Street at 6:17 p.m., and it may have been students in the gym.

Outside the Valley

*There were 27 log entries.

Thursday, April 7

*At 11:07 a.m. a friendly citizen flagged down JCSO in the 400 block of Caves Avenue, just to say hi.

*All was calm in the 100 block of Ollis Road at 11:20 a.m.

*Some kind of investigation occurred at E. River Street at N. Junction Avenue at 11:30 a.m., but everything apparently turned out OK.

*Peace reigned at the Forks

State Park at 1:07 p.m.

*Information was obtained at 1:22 p.m. at Finch Road and Westside Road, and at 1:51 p.m. at 205 W. Watkins Street.

*Christopher Luna was transported from Prottzman Way and arrested by Oregon State Police for warrants from Curry County at 6:12 p.m.

*A tan passenger vehicle crashed into the ditch at milepost 1 on Westside Road at 2:44 p.m. It was gone by 4:32 p.m.

*A woman who was evicted from Terrace Drive went back to get her stuff at 4:50 p.m. An eviction process must be followed, and the woman's possessions were placed into a shed until she can retrieve them.

*The ex-manager of a business in the 200 block of N. Redwood Hwy. was yelling and being disorderly at 5:55 p.m. Five people were blocking customers from coming into the store. An agreement was reached to return equipment to the proper owners, and the store was secured.

Outside the Valley

*Nineteen incidents logged.

Friday, April 8

*A woman phoned OSP because an anonymous caller told her they had seen her stolen 1995 white Bronco in the vicinity of Schumacher Street and River Street. At the time, the Bronco was still moving.

*An ADT alarm may have been triggered by a tech working on Laurel Road at 9:25 a.m.

*All seemed fine on Pinewood Way at 12:02 p.m.

*Two weeks ago, a guy said the cab of his truck was still in the 3400 block of Deer Creek Road. The dark purple car cab was pinched down several inches after the vehicle rolled over, and all serviceable parts had been removed. The vehicle identification plates (VIN) plates had been stolen from what was left of the vehicle.

*License plates that had apparently been switched were removed from a vehicle with a punched ignition. The suspicious car was parked in front of a hotel room in the 400 block of S. Redwood Hwy. at 12:59 p.m.

Outside the Valley

*There were 22 log listings.

Saturday, April 9

*A man with a sword was trying to gather his belongings from the 24500 block of Redwood Hwy., but he felt threatened by his ex-roommate's brother who had a baseball bat. (Is that like bringing a knife to a gunfight?)

*Everything appeared fine at Eight Dollar Mountain at 3:07 p.m.

*A messy camper was cited for trash and litter at the Store Gulch campground at 3:11 p.m.

*SOS alarms were set off in the 200 block of W. Palmer Street at 5:43 p.m.

Outside the Valley

*Twenty incidents logged.

Sunday, April 10

*An eagle-eye spotted a certain vehicle in the area of Ken Rose Lane, going down Cascade Lane on April 8, but the message was not received until April 10 so the bad guy got away.

*Lake Selmac area was checked, all was serene at 11:35 a.m.

*A vehicle was recovered in the 200 block of W. Lister Street at 11:52 a.m. The driver side window had been broken with a rock.

*At 12:42 p.m. a shady person on Shadowbrook Drive violated a restraining order.

*Two atypical customers ventured into Diggin Livin and stuffed their pockets with rolling papers and a RYOT square (roll your own tobacco leaf plug grinder). The alert cashier confronted the bicycle bandits, and obtained video footage of the merchandise being pocketed. One of the burglars answers to "Beaver" and has an extremely large stretched-out left earlobe.

*At 1:38 p.m., there was a trespasser who had cut a hole in a fence and started a fire on private property in the 18200 block of Redwood Hwy. Marcus Allen Yeoman, 35, was charged with second-degree trespass and cited to appear on May 9.

*A woman with blond hair may have been grandma-age, but she didn't act like a grandmother by pulling a knife on a kid at the skate park at Jubilee Park. The boy who phoned 911 then stated that the large knife was in her pocket, but he doesn't think she would have stabbed him. When law enforcement contacted others at the skate park, they did not see anything like this happen.

*Some poor guy on Deer Creek Road found himself in an awkward situation, with scratches on his neck and back to prove it. He and his girlfriend started fighting, and her visiting sister became angry and hit him with a rock while his back was turned. Since the sister is a guest of his girlfriend, he cannot force her to leave. He was advised of his options. (Don't fight with your girlfriend?)

*Occupants of a blue Mini-Cooper were taking photos of a truck and house in the 400 block of Madrona Drive at 3:03 p.m. When asked what they were doing, the driver rolled up her window, shrugged her shoulders and drove away.

*There was a possible restraining order violation on Warren Road regarding custody following a relationship break-up. There was no evidence of a crime, however, and the complaint was filed by a third party not affiliated with the mutual restraining orders.

*A Taurus PT-709 semi-automatic valued at $400 was stolen from a car on Green Valley Drive either April 6 or 7. The woman suspects that it is the jerk that she is living with who took it, because he had stolen a gun from her last year too. Plus they had a verbal and physical argument that morning. (Which could explain why he took her gun.)

*A bald, skinny, younger guy in dirty clothes was spotted at Oregon Discount Gas in a gray 1982 GMC Sierra which had been reported stolen from Home Depot in Klamath Falls. He was last seen headed down Lone Mountain Road at 5:19 p.m. A photo of the thief was given to law enforcement.

*Someone on S. Junction Avenue had nothing better to do with their time than to prank call 911 four times just to curse at the call-taker.

*At 5:55 p.m., some thin fellow in a dark T-shirt and baseball cap was in a smoking shed in the 24300 block of Redwood Hwy. The loon was talking to himself and pounding on the wall.

*A mini-van was down the embankment at Lakeshore Drive and Reeves Creek Road at 5:55 p.m., but it was not considered a road hazard.

Outside the Valley

*Items logged totaled 18.
