I.V. Lions announce wild theme for festival

The Illinois Valley Lions Club has announced the theme of their upcoming Labor Day Festival which will be held Sept. 3, 4 and 5 in Jubilee Park with a parade through downtown Sept. 5. This annual event showcases local vendors, crafters, organizations, businesses and more. Three days of fun for all ages will be hosted by the members of the club to the delight of all.

This year's parade chairman is Gary Price and vendor chairman is David Anderson. Gary and David encourage everyone to get involved with this year's theme of "On the Edge of the Wild."

Watch the Illinois Valley News for the parade and vendor booth applications as well as more articles through the summer. If you have any questions contact David at 541-

597-4486 (leave a message if no answer) for a call back.

In a last minute addition to the agenda, members of the I.V. Pride Campaign gained approval from the council to go ahead with their youth art contest, the winners of which will design a mural to be painted on the Jubilee Park band shell. The I.V. Pride Campaign is working to highlight the positive aspects of our community and instill local pride in the youth of the Illinois Valley. In addition to having their art immortalized at Jubilee Park, the winners of the contest will receive community service credit. The council will be meeting Monday, May 16 at 7 p.m. to hear a proposal to privatize the water treatment system and will hold a regular business meeting May 23 at 7 p.m. at City Hall, located at 222 W. Lister Street in Cave Junction.
