*A warning was given to the driver of a Toyota Camry for no seat belt at MP 5 of the Illinois River Road at 3:14 p.m.

*Four partiers at Store Gulch were advised of the laws regarding alcohol possession along the Illinois River at 3:36 p.m.

*At 5:04 p.m. a 911 call came in from the 4700 block of Reeves Creek Road, but nothing was heard.

*A tenant in the 17800 block of Redwood Hwy. does not want anyone in her home and was not pleased when someone else invited people to her property at 5:21 p.m. She was advised of her options to deal with the unwanted guests.

*JCSO safeguarded the Ring Beach River Access area at 5:33 p.m.

Saturday, July 30

*A landscaper activated SOS motion detectors several times in the 100 block of N. Redwood Hwy. The bank shut down in March and will soon be a Subway. (Presumably a sandwich shop and not a means of transportation.)

*At 9:57 a.m. a tall, muscular fellow with a buzz cut was breaking out the windows of his older motorhome attached to a rusty Jeep in the 100 block of S. Hussey Avenue. The middle-aged rabble-rouser was wearing brown shorts and flip flops, and screaming at people driving by to leave him alone. He was laying framing and debris onto the City Hall steps. Since he was only destroying his own property, and not placing himself in danger by going into traffic, the information was passed on to the next deputy on duty.

*A 911 caller must have been f-f-frustrated because all the dispatcher could hear was "F F F nothing's working". There was no answer on a call back to the residence in the 3300 block of Dick George Road at 10:25 a.m. When mumbling was heard on a second call, law enforcement checked the residence and found that alcohol consumption was creating issues with operating a telephone.

*There was a disturbance in the 400 block of Aquarius Way at 10:27 a.m.

*Law enforcement kept watch at Little Falls Trailhead Campground at 10:50 a.m., then again at 11:28 a.m.

*All was fine at the Eight Dollar Bridge at 11 a.m.

*The disorderly dude who destroyed his motorhome and placed parts on the City Hall steps had cleaned up his debris by 11:55 a.m. He was warned for his demolition display.

*A woman awaited a friend with a trailer to haul her Saturn, which was two miles up Illinois River Road at 1:27 p.m.

*The driver of a black Jetta was given a Federal traffic citation for no child or seat belts. This occurred at 1:31 p.m. on Illinois River Road, approximately 4 miles from Hwy. 199.

*A Californian operating a Honda Accord was warned for seat belt violation on Illinois River Road near Six Mile Camp at 2:05 p.m.

*At 2:19 the owner of a Ford pickup truck was cautioned to wear seat belts in the 13000 block of Illinois River Road.

*The Six Mile Campground was peaceful when JCSO made the rounds at 2:20 p.m.

*The designated driver had to take over because the original driver did not have a valid operator's license and was not wearing a seat belt. The Jeep Cherokee was pulled over at Horn Bend on the Illinois River Road at 2:27 p.m.

*Photos were taken of illegally parked cars at Diver's Hole at 3:31 p.m., and their tickets were placed under their windshield wipers.

*Another seat belt violator - this time was for the driver of a Toyota Camry at Store Gulch Campground at 4:11 p.m.

*At 4:36 p.m., one more driver failed to use a seat belt while traveling in a Ford Explorer on the Illinois River Road at Six Mile Campground.

Outside the Valley

* Two dozen items.
