Valley wrestling club dominates at home

The Illinois Valley Wrestling Club had a home tournament Nov. 12. Wrestling clubs came from Southern Oregon to come and compete. Wrestlers competed both individually and as a team.

I.V. Wrestling Club took first place. Crater followed in second and Eagle Point finished the day in third. "Our wrestlers work really hard and are very determined to do well. By getting the first place team trophy just shows how hard they work," said team manager Kristin Mundt. In addition to team competition, the I.V. grapplers dominated the mat individually.

6 Cougars get league recognition

2016 Southern Cascade League announced its All-League Team selections.

On offense the Illinois Vally High School was represented by offensive lineman junior Randy Bates and all purpose player senior Skylar McLanahan

On the defensive side of the ball junior lineman Nathan Klaiss and freshman defensive back Elijah Polk were picked.

Honorable mention went to junior kicker Pepe Mendoza and senior quarter back Ross Gaynor.

Coach of the Year went to Saint Mary's Jamie Young.
