*Cannaguard Security said the person they contacted did not have the code to deactivate an alarm in the 2700 block of Holland Loop Road at 1:09 p.m. (Short-term memory loss?)

*At 1:46 p.m. trees fell into a ditch, blocking drainage, and causing flooding on Thompson Creek Road. Josephine County Public Works Dept. (JCPWD) was advised.

*Construction workers spotted the red Dodge pickup truck being driven on Rockydale Road and Waldo Road at 1:47 p.m. It went through Four Corners and was last seen heading towards the snow park. He claimed they lived at an illegal marijuana grow site in the 8100 block of Deer Creek Road. The red-haired, heavy-set driver initially stated that he had no insurance or driver's license, then offered to give his phone number and pay $50. As soon as the first guy turned to get his information, he fled in a black SUV with a push-guard on the front.

a.m. The theft occurred between 1-8 a.m. on Jan. 16. Missing items include a red Millermatic 175 MIG welder, valued at $650, and two gas cans worth $25. A report was filed for second-degree theft and burglary.

*At 11:45 a.m. a red Grand Prix was flying 60 mph until it slid out at the end of Finch Road. *A gal was on her way to a dinner date when she found a phone in the road at 126 Redwood Hwy. She knew who it belonged to, but she didn't want to be late, so she kept going. She claimed that her pain was an eight out of 10, but she had no injuries other than a red mark.

*A theft that occurred on either Jan. 14 or 15 in the 100 block of Ken Rose Lane was reported at 9:38 a.m. A Husqvarna tool box, Miller Bobcat 225 Kohler welder worth $3,525, 100 feet of cables, and a welder cover were all removed without permission.
