

Tales from the Rural Patrol

(Editor's note: Factual information for 'Patrol' is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Charges can be amended or dismissed.)

Monday, Jan. 30

*Who knows if he was intoxicated or high, but a wacko was screaming and cursing at himself in the bathroom at Jubilee Park at 9:28 a.m.

*Extra patrol was requested for vacant property in the 300 block of S. Kerby Avenue, due to problems with trespassers and would-be campers on Nov. 16-18, 2016. Although the residence was cleared at 3:50 p.m., there had been people there, and a back door was unsecured.

*Jubilee Park was peaceful at 3:28 p.m.

*A deputy investigated the 400 block of S. Redwood Hwy. at 3:37 p.m.

*A gal in her 40s was talking to herself and jumping out into traffic in the 100 block of S. Hussey Avenue at 3:47 p.m. She was decked out in a black jacket and knee-high rubber boots. There was no evidence of a crime.

*Trespassers on Golf Club Drive were given a second notice, and advised to pack up and move within 24 hours. They had quite a few items in their camp in the wooded area behind the Dollar General at 4:54 p.m.

*Law enforcement checked the wooded area near a storage facility in the 25000 block of Redwood Hwy. at 5:09 p.m.

Outside the Valley

*Twenty-nine incidents

Tuesday, Jan. 31

*A not-too-bright chick wearing black boots, blue leggings and a black shirt was exhibiting shocking behavior by tampering with the power box at the pharmacy at 333 S. Redwood Hwy. at 9:15 a.m. She was sporting a hoody complete with ears, and decorated with animal characters.

*An elderly woman phoned law enforcement at 9:51 a.m., requesting their support to motivate her grandson to move out from the 300 block of Borica Drive. She claimed that he moved her from California last February, and he was taking advantage of her. He left in a white SUV.

*At 10:11 a.m. a mom reported that she was driving on Holland Loop when a guy in a large black truck shot out her windshield. He was wearing a black leather jacket and gloves, and his truck had damage to the front left bumper. She was OK, but having a panic attack because her baby was in the car with her at the time.

*Three canines are in the doghouse in the 5000 block of Thompson Creek Road. At 11:52 a.m. a red pit-bull, a boxer-Swiss mountain dog, and a smaller black dog were terrorizing a guy walking his puppy. Other neighbors also complained of the aggressive nature of the pit-bull, so the matter was referred to Josephine County Animal Control.

*It was reported that between Jan. 30-31, a trespasser set up camp 50 feet east of the parking lot at Wild River Pizza in the 200 block of N. Redwood Hwy.

*When a home care person left her job in the 27000 block of Redwood Hwy. Jan. 26, she failed to return her employer's household and vehicle keys. She did not return his phone calls, so he hired a locksmith.

*A motorist in the 300 block of N. Sawyer Avenue was warned of driving status at 2:44 p.m.

*The driver of a gold-colored Suburban had a gun in his pocket before he was taken into custody at 3:31 p.m. in the 300 block of S. Redwood Hwy. He was detained at Josephine County Jail on warrants, felon in possession of a weapon, unlawful possession of a weapon, and possibly stolen vehicle.

*There was a cat-fight at 3:47 p.m. at Forks State Park when a broad with a blonde wig walked up and punched a gal in a dark-colored car.

Outside the Valley

*Thirty situations.

Wednesday, Feb. 1

*The noise pollution in the 9300 block of Takilma Road has escalated from loud bass music. The sounds of an ore rock tumbler and the screeching of a corrugated steel gate are grating on the nerves of a neighbor. Numerous complaints have reportedly been filed the past two years, to no avail. Law enforcement advised it was beyond available resources.

*At 2:07 p.m. a vehicle was recovered at 18281 Redwood Hwy. It appeared to have been rolled, and the ignition was punched.

*A motorist on Redwood Hwy. at Pinewood Way was warned for failure to carry current proof of insurance and for a defective tail light at 2:19 p.m.

*An orange and white International semi-truck and trailer ran out of fuel, and was partially blocking Holland Loop and Takilma Road at 2:48 p.m.

*Jubilee Park was patrolled at 3:10 p.m.

*A character ran from a residence in the 300 block of N. Sawyer Avenue at 3:28 p.m., but everything checked out OK.

Outside the Valley

*Twenty-two entries.

Thursday, Feb. 2

*A legally-separated couple from Westside Road had an altercation at 11:32 a.m. The husband was recently conditionally released from jail, with an order for no contact with his wife. He and their adult children left in a red 1997 Ford F-250 with a blue tarp covering his belongings. The wife just bought the truck in her name only, so there were no license plates, just a temporary tag in the back. The husband broke a window, used a knife on the door, then destroyed tires on the truck.

He was not indicted on charges of fourth-degree domestic assault because someone did not appear for the Grand Jury. He was released and agreed to get the truck running again, and Jerry's Tow Company re-inflated the tires. The problem with the truck was a civil issue, and the wife was cited to the Circuit Court in Grants Pass on her warrants.

*Folks in Cave Junction received a fraudulent phone call, supposedly from a legal carrier for the county who said that legal action was pending. A message was recorded on their answering machine with requirements and an 800-number.

*An elderly guy wearing a black long-sleeved shirt was in a black Toyota 4-Runner in the drive-through at Dairy Queen at 2:45 p.m. He had gray hair, beard and mustache and was wearing glasses. He backed into an employee's vehicle, then threatened to run over someone who tried to keep him until law enforcement arrived. When the manager and employee confronted him, he stated that he did not want the police contacted because he would end up going back to jail for 45 days due to a prior DUII arrest. He offered to pay for the damage he caused, but then he drove away. Employees took pictures of the geezer and his vehicle. A report was filed for failure to leave name at scene of accident.

*A 911 call was received at 3:53 p.m. from the 1100 block of N. Old Stage Road. When the dispatcher asked for the caller's name, she apologized, said it was her friend that called, and hung up the phone. The deputy found an empty lot at the location of the call.

*A child could be heard saying "Mommy" during a 911 call from the 200 block of N. Old Stage Road at 5:04 p.m.

Outside the Valley

*Thirty-two incidents.

Friday, Feb. 3

*Josephine County Sheriff's Office provided Community Oriented Policing at Evergreen Elementary School at 8:59 a.m.

*A dog was on the loose near Takilma Road and Dick George Road at 12:37 p.m.

*At 1:13 p.m., a deputy patrolled the 4000 block of Holland Loop.

*Two guys walking down S. Junction Avenue and E. Watkins Street were cleared with further investigation at 2 p.m.
