

Patrol . . .

*When the kook from the 400 block of Piller Place returned for her vehicle at 4:05 p.m., she complained that it was muddy, dented and a window was broken. There was no suspect information or evidence.

*W. Watkins Street and S. Kerby Avenue were patrolled at 4:51 p.m.

*The operator of a red Ford Mustang was cited for no operator's license and failure to carry proof of insurance on Hwy. 199 and Reeves Creek Road at 12:03 p.m. He was warned for no front license plate, speeding, and failure to carry proof of registration.

*A traveler lost his wallet in Las Vegas Feb. 8, but luckily someone found it. Reward money was exchanged, but unfortunately the wallet was never returned to its rightful owner. (What happens in Vegas, stays in Vegas.)

*Law enforcement pulled over a silver-colored GMC pickup truck on Caves Hwy. at Laurel Road at 1:17 p.m. Jeffrey Harasty, 44, was charged with failure to carry and present, and for providing false information to police. She has already been given an eviction notice and is looking for a new place. (Try a classified ad in the "I.V. News"?)
