Friday, April 7

*ADT reported an alarm from garage in the 1100 block of Lakeshore Drive at 10:56 a.m. It was an accidental activation.

*There was an alarm triggered in the 700 block of Farris Lane at 11:10 a.m., according to SOS. The home owner pressed the panic alarm on her key fob when she tried to open the door to her residence.

*A downed tree was blocking one lane of Finch Road near Westside Road at 11:54 a.m. Josephine County Public Works Dept. was advised, and dispatched a road crew.

*A white 1988 Honda Civic was reportedly stolen at 8:30 a.m., and JCISO was notified at 1:12 p.m. The fellow knew the car was in the 200 block of Raymond Street, but he wanted to continue with a signed stolen report to try and catch the thief. He had ownership paperwork, but the title was still in the previous owner's name, so the incident was deemed unfounded.

*A homeless man was given a cookie and allowed to use the restroom at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in the 100 block of Lewis Court at 3:37 p.m. He repaid the kindness by preventing people from entering or leaving the church. The fellow was decked out in a black knitted cap, boxer shorts, and a blue robe. His blue jeans and tennis shoes were on the ground, near a blue tarp which covered plastic bags, a steak knife and pocket knife. When he refused to comply with law enforcement, and appeared to be reaching for a knife, he was tazed and taken into custody. Dennis Kevin Peters, 20, was detained at Josephine County Jail, charged with disorderly conduct, criminal trespass, and resisting arrest.

Sunday, April 9

*Residents in the 100 block of Mesa Verde Drive have felt harassed by a guy for the past three years. Two years ago, his daughter was run off the road and sexually harassed by this fellow. During another aggravating incident, he was sideswiped and hit with the side mirror of the dude's truck. The neighbors banded together and convinced the landlord to evict the unruly tenant due to his behavior, which included running over animals. The trouble-maker has returned to the area, recklessly driving a white low-rider pickup truck with tinted windows. He spun out his tires, causing a rock to hit a mailbox, narrowly missing a pedestrian and a nearby horse. JCISO logged the complaint as BAR.

*At 9:47 a.m. a resident in the 300 block of Hanby Lane reported a wacky woman who was camped behind her home, peeking over her fence, and ranting to herself. A deputy warned her for trespass, and he told the wanderer to pack her belongings and move along.

*COP at 202 S. Redwood Hwy. at 1:09 p.m.

*A prisoner in Josephine County Jail was involved in an assault case on Feb. 24 involving an employee at Shop Smart Food Warehouse. The jail bird was cussing and upsetting customers, then punched the worker in the mouth. The victim did not wish to pursue charges, but his manager wanted the information documented on April 7.

*On April 3, a guy was trespassed because he stole beer from Shop Smart Food Warehouse. Since then he returned to the store five times, begged for money from customers, and acted very angry and almost violent. He was wearing a dark hoodie and carried backpacks when he left after police were summoned.

*A car that was parked in the 300 block of Merlot Drive was damaged between 9 p.m. April 7 and 7 a.m. April 8. Jon Guches was cited into Jackson County Court for failure to appear for driving under the influence of intoxicants. A report was filed for second-degree criminal mischief.
