Public assistance needed to solve church fires

The Oregon State Police (OSP) are seeking the community's help. According to a release from OSP, over the past year, the OSP has investigated four separate fire events at the Community Bible Church. The church is located at 113 Caves Avenue in Cave Junction.

The four fires occurred on or about Jan. 15, 2016; Jan. 30, 2016; March 13, 2016; and April 23, 2016. All four fires were determined to be intentionally set. The Oregon State Police is requesting the public's help in identifying a person of interest in these fires.

The subject seen in the photos is between 5 and 6 feet tall, about 190-200 pounds and is wearing a dark jacket, gray sweatshirt, jeans and black shoes with a boonie style hat. At the time of the video, he was seen wearing a dark colored draw string backpack.

OSP asks that anyone who recognizes the person in the photos or has information regarding the fires, to contact the Oregon State Police at 541-440-3333.
