

Tales from the Rural Patrol

(Editor's note: Factual information for 'Patrol' is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Charges can be amended or dismissed.)

Monday, April 10

*A motorist was warned for no front license plate at 11:30 a.m. in a parking lot at 25658 Redwood Hwy.

*Anthony Grebisz, 28, was detained at Josephine County Jail for a post-prison supervisory authority warrant. Law enforcement arrested Grebisz at 222 W. Lister St. at 11:54 a.m.

*An investigation was conducted in the 100 block of Sanger Lane at 4:25 p.m.

*A deputy checked on a house in the 100 block of Caves Hwy. at 4:53 p.m.

*At 5:18 p.m. a gal was warned for alcohol consumption in Jubilee Park, so she poured out the remainder of her drink.

*There was a group of people at the north end of Jubilee Park at 5:24 p.m., but the deputy decided they were OK.

Outside the Valley

*Seventeen incidents.

Tuesday, April 11

*Ding, dong, bell, a trespasser was in the well shed in the 300 block of McMullen Creek Road at 9:07 a.m. The elderly resident was afraid of his (not so) great-niece because she threatened to burn his house down. A restraining order (RO) was issued a year ago, but it was never served, so another would need to be filed.

*Law enforcement located Amanda Jo Briney, 29, in the 600 block of Lakeshore Drive at 10:50 a.m. She was detained at Josephine County Jail on a warrant for failure to appear for possession of meth, and warned for trespass in the 300 block of McMullen Creek Road.

*A damsel left her home in the 6100 block of Takilma Road at 2:30 p.m. April 5. When she returned an hour later, her driveway gate was unlocked, and her camera was missing. The Smarson model S-03 plus trail camera was valued at $200.

*An apparently intoxicated guy with a full beard stole a large can of beer from a store at 110 Deer Creek Road at 11:14 a.m. The inebriated individual wearing a canvas-colored coat dropped his beer as he walked to his white Ford pickup truck. He was trespassed from the property.

*SOS reported an alarm in the 6100 block of Takilma Road at 11:48 a.m.

*A deputy gathered information at the Junction Inn at 11:51 a.m.

*At 12:25 p.m. a motorist was cited for no operator's license at the Oregon Caves Chevron. He was warned for failure to signal and no insurance.

*Two fugitives were detained at Josephine County Jail following a motor vehicle accident at 12:36 p.m. The duo fled from a green Ford Explorer that was overturned in a ditch near Redwood Hwy. and Ken Rose Lane. Jamie Joanne Newberry, 31, was arrested for a state parole board warrant for abscond. Scott Hicks, 50, was detained for parole violation.

*A deputy searched for a camp on Forest Service Road 029 at 2:21 p.m.

*Law enforcement patrolled near Eight Dollar Mountain at 2:59 p.m.

*An individual was served with an RO at 3 p.m. in the 24500 block of Redwood Hwy.

*No medical assistance was required at 3:30 p.m. for a motor vehicle accident in the 23600 block of Redwood Hwy., but a tow truck was needed.

Outside the Valley

*Fourteen situations.

Wednesday, April 12

*An unwanted guest may have been in room 125 at the Junction Inn at 9:07 a.m. A trespass letter will be submitted to Josephine County Sheriff's Office (JCSO) to document individuals who are not allowed on the property.

*At 12:52 p.m. a little birdie told JCSO that a certain person had an active warrant and lived in the 32000 block of Deer Creek Road. There was no warrant in the law enforcement data system.

*A driver in the 1100 block of Caves Hwy. was cited for no operator's license and failure to carry insurance at 1:06 p.m.

*A young woman went for a run with two dogs at 9 a.m., but they had not returned to the 400 block of Raintree Drive at 1:49 p.m. She was wearing leggings, hiking boots, and a fleece vest, and her canine companions were a brown pit-bull mix and a white husky puppy. Three people searched for her until she returned at 2:16 p.m.

*A deputy checked on someone near Boundary Avenue and River Street at 4:09 p.m.

*JCSO provided community oriented policing (COP) at 4:40 p.m. at 112 S. Redwood Hwy.

*Law enforcement stopped a vehicle in the 4500 block of Waldo Road at 4:43 p.m.

Outside the Valley

*Nineteen entries.

Thursday, April 13

*An attempt was made to deliver an RO at 3:19 p.m. in the 28000 block of Redwood Hwy.

*The RO was administered at 3:31 p.m. in the 28000 block of Redwood Hwy.

Outside the Valley

*Twenty-three incidents.

Friday, April 14

*Thieves broke into locked boxes on a dump truck in the 35200 block of Redwood Hwy. They stole four batteries valued at $1,000, and chains and tie downs worth $1,000.

*On April 12, a vehicle was damaged while parked near a church in the 100 block of S. Caves Avenue. It appeared that a crow bar was used to gain entry into the car, but nothing was taken. An incident number was provided for insurance purposes.

*Teen-agers living near Sherwood Avenue and Barlow Street were playing music and working on their very loud vehicles all night. This was causing trouble in a neighborhood of primarily elderly residents, so they wanted a deputy to warn the youngsters regarding their behavior.

*A concerned citizen requested a welfare check on a friend living in the 400 block of Fir Drive at 4:13 p.m. All was fine at 4:56 p.m.

Outside the Valley

*Eighteen listings.

Saturday, April 15

*Law enforcement provided COP for an event at Illinois Valley High School at 9:56 a.m.

*COP occurred at Jubilee Park at 11:10 a.m.

*The driver of a silver-colored Honda was warned for violating the basic rules of the road near the intersection of Redwood Hwy. and Hidden Creek Road at 1:23 p.m.

*A passenger in a red Ford van near a playground in Jubilee Park attracted attention when she raised her hand like she wanted to hit a child. She did not actually strike the youngster, but an upset caller reported that she had a warrant at 2:13 p.m. JCSO verified that there were no warrants, but she had previously been trespassed from Jubilee Park.

Outside the Valley

*Eleven items.

Sunday, April 16

*There was a 911 hang-up call from the 5100 block of Holland Loop at 12:45 p.m.

*A 911 call from the 100 block of S. Hussey Avenue at 2:42 p.m. was a hip-dial.

*A dude on a Honda three-wheeler eluded law enforcement near Kerby Street and Redwood Hwy., but they caught up with him at 2:50 p.m. He was warned for driving with a suspended license, and operation of an off-road vehicle on the highway.

Outside the Valley

*Twenty-one items.
