Valley youth makes wrestling history

Lorna Byrne Middle School fifth-grader Ryan Griffin took the top spot in this year's state youth wrestling tournament in Salem May 5-7. The 11-year-old Griffin is the son of Eugene and Sonia Griffin from Selma.

Griffin has been wrestling since he was 4-years-old, and this is his sixth season of Collegiate Wrestling and third season of Freestyle and Greco.

Griffin has the distinction of being the first youth Freestyle State Champion from the Illinois Valley. (Although, 26 ago in 1991, Tristan Proett won state at in the high school division.)

Griffin will now travel to participate for the Damaged Ear Travel Team in the USA Northwest Regional Tournament in Pocatello, Idaho June 18-23, for all three styles of wrestling.

Griffin would like to take the time to dedicate these accomplishments to all his coaches that have helped along the way, especially Uncle Matt Miller.

In addition to Griffin, three other Valley grapplers participated in the state tournament.

Micca Martinho, a fourth-grader at Evergreen Elementary School took fifth in Freestyle and fourth in Greco.

Jesse Conn, a second-grader at Evergreen Elementary School took sixth in Freestyle.

Ryder Sauer, also a second-grader at Evergreen Elementary School finished a full 9 month-season in his first year of wrestling.
