*A deputy warned a scofflaw for disorderly conduct in the parking lot at Shop Smart Food Warehouse at 4:04 p.m.

Outside the Valley

*Twenty-six items.

Wednesday, May 3

*A gal in the 100 block of N. Caves Avenue did not appreciate a trespasser that was loitering around her property. The intruder wasn't doing anything, but she was known for her bad habit of stealing bicycles and stashing them under her RV port awning.

*A chaplain was summoned at 11:32 a.m. for a person who succumbed to a gunshot wound in the 3000 block of Westside Road.

*On May 2, a fellow in the 400 block of Queen of Bronze Road was grading his easement when his hostile neighbor pointed a rifle and fired off a shot over his head. When he returned 30 minutes later, the grouch drove his truck in a threatening manner towards him.

*Two guests engaged in domestic violence at 12:16 p.m. at 24810 Redwood Hwy. They were yelling and pushing each other in front of an 11-month old baby. The couple claimed their fight was verbal, but admitted that they broke each other's phones. They were advised of their options, and that a report would be forwarded to Department of Human Services.

*The front license plate was removed from a vehicle parked on private property in the 24100 block of Redwood Hwy. at 1:12 p.m. The owner was advised of his driver's license status.

*A duo didn't set a very good example when they were fighting in front of children in the 300 block of W. O'Brien Street at 1:36 p.m.

*A fellow phoned for assistance with his computer, but when his helpers called him back, there was no answer, even though his vehicle was there in the 4500 block of Laurel Avenue. It turned out that he was at Royal Gardens, and not at home.

*The driver of a Chevy was pulled over at MP 38 of Hwy. 199 at 2:14 p.m.

*A deputy patrolled the area from Sherier Road to Fernwood Drive at 2:22 p.m.

*Jerry's Towing Co. responded to the 800 block of N. Old Stage Road at 2:53 p.m.

*At 4:21 p.m. a motorist in a red Durango with no front license plate was stopped at Old Stage Road and E. River Street. He was cited into Cave Junction Municipal Court for DWS/V and uninsured driving.

*A misinformed busy-body phoned 911 because his friend told him that there was a fight going on in front of Art's Red Garter Steakhouse at 4:31 p.m.

Outside the Valley

*Twenty-one entries.

Thursday, May 4

*Residents in the 3600 block of Dick George Road were not happy with new occupants in the neighborhood because they shoot small and large caliber guns as soon as it gets dark. There are concerns that the newbies are not practicing safety precautions to protect people and animals in adjacent properties.

*It was reported that a tall, thin guy with black hair and a goatee was stealing a 30' Springdale fifth-wheel trailer from the 1400 block of Arrowhead Drive at 2:36 p.m. A witness claimed that drug paraphernalia was being removed from the location the previous night. The alleged thief believed that the trailer should belong to him because work was not being performed at a marijuana grow operation. A deputy explained that the dispute regarding the trailer was a civil matter, and suggested that both parties seek legal counsel and settle in court.

*SOS reported an activated alarm at 5:12 p.m. in the 400 block of S. Junction Avenue.

Outside the Valley

*Eighteen incidents.

Friday, May 5

*Oregon State Police and California Highway Patrol forwarded information regarding a road rage incident at MP 41 of Hwy. 199 at 11 a.m. A gold-colored Chevy Tahoe and a gray Sierra pickup truck with Oregon plates were headed towards Grants Pass when one driver passed on a double line and cut off the other vehicle.

*A mother stated that her daughter assaulted her at 9 p.m. on May 3. She had a red mark or bruise on her left cheek, and is pursuing a restraining order against her offspring. The incident was unfounded as an assault, but the mom wanted the incident logged for future reference.

*A gal was upset that her estranged husband returned to her residence in the 300 block of Pine Tree Way at 1:19 p.m. He was collecting his belongings. She was advised to document everything that he removed, then to present the information to the judge as part of the divorce hearings.

*Chief Hoke of Illinois Valley Fire District saved the day by stopping a confrontation at the Western Plaza at 4:26 p.m. A group of teens were arguing with a homeless woman named Melissa. One of the juveniles was seen with a gun, and Melissa was armed with a knife, but the gang dispersed when the Chief arrived.

Saturday, May 6

*At 10:11 a.m. there was a white Dodge pickup truck parked over the fog line near Lakeshore Drive and Thompson Creek Road. A tow truck was summoned to remove the vehicle with license plates that expired in 2008.

*On May 5, a motorist in a white Honda flew through the gates at Illinois Valley High School at 11 a.m. The show-off's speeding caused the car to spin sideways around the circular driveway in front of the school.

*SOS reported an activated alarm at 11:17 a.m. at Cascade Auto and Truck Repair.

*At 1:07 p.m. a citizen was worried about a 10-year-old child who had been sitting in a car in the 200 block of S. Redwood Hwy. for 15 minutes. The car was parked in the sun with the window cracked. When the mother was approached, she advised that the kid could open the door if needed.

*A large tree fell near Reeves Creek Road and Lakeshore Drive at 3:18 p.m. It was not a hazard once it was moved to the side of the road, but there was debris in the road. Josephine County Department of Public Works was advised that the tree was in a drainage culvert.

*The driver of a white Dodge pickup truck was speeding and crossing the double yellow line on Hwy. 199 near West River Street at 5:27 p.m.

*A newer yellow Volkswagen bug was parked all day in the bus turnaround at MM 4 on E. Fork Road.

*SOS reported a triggered alarm at 5:54 p.m. on the exterior motion detector of a feed shed in the 400 block of Caves Hwy.

Outside the Valley
