

PATROL ...

*On May 23 between 11-11:30 a.m., a fellow was walking across Hwy. 199 near Hanby Lane when a redhead driving a white extended cab Dodge Ram pickup truck nearly hit him. He yelled at the motorist, who threatened to shoot him next time he saw him in the road.

*Law enforcement investigated at McCaleb Ranch at 12:51 p.m.

*Two sisters had quite an audience when they were squabbling at 1:08 p.m. in the 100 block of Hogue Drive. There were no apparent injuries from the cat fight.

*A citizen complained of a gold-colored Ford Escort that was blocking 90 percent of a driveway in the 1000 block of Lakeshore Drive at 1:20 p.m. A deputy noted that the disabled vehicle was out of the road, not a hazard, and only blocked 50 percent of the driveway.

*When an employee with Primary Health Insurance spoke with a client regarding Oregon Health Plan, he became very volatile, screaming and yelling. He was upset over not getting any help or assistance. She requested a welfare check on the customer in the 4200 block of Lakeshore Drive at 2:01 p.m. He was OK, but did not want to talk with deputies at 5:40 p.m.

*Everything was fine in the 200 block of S. Old Stage Road at 2:08 p.m.
